$103,967,518 FOR THE NAVY FOR ONE YEAR

Two New Battleships and Eight Submarines Are Authorized by the Bill.

PROVISION IS MADE FOR 6,000 MORE SAILORS

These Men Will Be Needed to Man the New Ships Which Are Going Into Commission—Hobson Makes a Plea for Expenditure of More Money.

Washington, April 8.—The naval appropriation bill authorizing the construction of two instead of four battleships and eight instead of four submarine torpedo boats, and carrying a total appropriation of $103,967,518 for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, was reported to the house today by Chairman Foss, of the committee on naval affairs.

The total appropriation recommended is $22,518,831 less than the aggregate estimates submitted by the department, and is $3,663,916 more than the amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908.

6,000 sailors Wanted.

The bill carries an item of $1,000,000 toward the construction of submarine torpedo boats and an item of $445,000 toward the construction of subsurface torpedo boats. Provision is made for the enlistment of 6,000 men to man the following ships which are to be put in commission within the next few months:

The California, Mississippi, Idaho, New Hampshire, South Dakota, North Carolina, Montana, Chester, Birmingham and Salem, and for 1,500 men to man torpedo boats not now in commission.

Among the chief items in the bill are the following:

For naval training station, Great Lakes, $1,095,600; for construction and machinery, $9,832,962; for armor and armament, $7,000,000; for equipment, $400,000; for subsurface and submarine boats, $1,445,000.

An increase of $500,000 over last year's appropriation was allowed in the appropriation for ordnance and ordnance stores, mainly for target practice, and because there will be in full or in partial commission during the fiscal year twenty-four battleships, twelve first-class cruisers, sixty-six second-rate and third-rate vessels, sixty torpedo vessels and fifteen auxiliary vessels, making a total of 177 vessels.

New Guns Wanted.

There was also an increase of $150,000 for smokeless powder. The bill further provides an appropriation of $416,000 for replacing the three-pounder and six-pounder guns by 3-inch 50-caliber or larger guns, because of the increase in the effective range of the latest type of torpedo. These new guns are designed to give the ships protection against long-range torpedo discharge. Provision is also made for other changes intended to keep the batteries of the ships in the highest state of efficiency. Nine hundred and fifty thousand dollars is appropriated for torpedoes and the converting of torpedo boats.

The appropriation for arming and equipping the naval militia is increased to $100,000, "in order that this branch of the naval reserve of the United States may be more efficiently conducted."

The appropriation for equipment of vessels is increased $500,000 over the current fiscal year on account of the increased number of ships in commission and the necessity of fitting them with new gun-firing apparatus and with wireless telegraphy.

The appropriation for coal and transportation is increased $350,000.

For provisions for the navy an appropriation is made of $6,547,903. The report accompanying the bill states that an allowed increase of $100,000 in the appropriation for provisions for the marine corps "is due to the increased cost of 16 per cent in the price of rations."

Ships Being Constructed.

The report shows that there are in course of building seven battleships, four armored cruisers, three scout cruisers, five torpedo boat destroyers, four submarine boats, two colliers and two sea-going tugs. The amount necessary to be appropriated to pay for the work now progressing and contracted for during the next fiscal year is $17,232,962. Under the heading "Naval Program," the committeee recommends that the president be authorized to have constructed two first-class battleships to cost, exclusive of armor and armament, not exceeding $6,000,000 each; ten torpedo boat destroyers, to have the highest practicable speed and to cost, exclusive o farmament, not to exceed $800,000 each; that the secretary of the navy be authorized to have constructed eight submarine torpedo boats, to cost in the aggregate not more than $3,500,000, of which amount $1,000,000 is appropriated; and one subsurface torpedo boat at a cost not to exceed $400,000, and two small vessels of like type not to exceed in cost $22,500 each—a total authorization of $25,945,000, which will be increased $7,000,000 by the cost of arming and equipping the two battleships.

What Foreign Powers Are Doing.

The report shows that the naval construction programs of the several foreign powers contemplate the expenditure of the following amounts for

STIGMA IS REMOVED FROM PROMINENT MAN AND SECRET GUARDED

Court Relieves Man of Homicide Charge Who Fled New York Twenty-Five Years Ago and Has Now Won Success Under an Assumed Name.

Kingston, N. Y., April 8.—In some western city, the name of which is scrupulously guarded, lives a prominent and respected citizen from whom the supreme court of New York today removed the stigma of an indictment which was returned 26 years ago and charged John Taylor with the death of Thomas Murray.

The present home of Taylor and the name under which he has since lived married and risen to the head of a big mercantile establishment, are known to but three men here, and this secret will be kept. Taylor's identity was made known by him to the court after a search for him, which covered two continents and took several years, had been abandoned. Throwing himself upon the mercy of the prosecutor, Taylor invited an inquiry into his life for the past quarter of a century. This was made and it proves so satisfactory that former Supreme Court Justice Clearwater, who as district attorney, obtained the indictment against Taylor, declared that it would be gross injustice to reveal the man's new name.

Today Justice W. C. Howard, of Troy, sitting in the supreme court, dismissed the indictment against Taylor, after it had been shown that all possible witnesses against the defendant were dead. Justice Clearwater, who personally investigated the case, and the present district attorney, W. A. Cunningham, seconded the action of the court. Only Justice Howard, Mr. Clearwater and Mr. Cunningham have knowledge of the facts in the case. Ex-Justice Clearwater said tonight:

"The killing of Murray was a case of love, rum and politics. Manslaughter, which was charged, could not be proven. Taylor has made a new home and won an honored name. He is at the head of a big manufacturing establishment in the west, has a wife and six children, all ignorant of his early misforune. His character is above reproach and it would be an outrage to revive the story now."

The killing of Murray and the subsequent pursuit of Taylor created great interest. Murray was killed at Fort Ewen, Ulster county, on an election day, when there had been a riot at the polls. Taylor and Murray were unfriendly for various reasons. They belonged to opposing political parties and loved the same girl. On election day they quarreled at the polling place and then fought on the street. A brick with which Murray's skull was cracked is still in the office of the district attorney. Several days later Murray died and Taylor fled. In 1882, a grand jury indicted Taylor for manslaughter in the first degree.

NEGRO KIDNAPS DEPUTY WEST

Marched Officer Off at the Point of a Pistol.

FEARS FELT FOR HIS SAFETY

Alabama Deputy Attempted to Arrest Negro Desperado, and While Reading the Warrant Negro Grabbed Officer's Pistol and Marched Him Off.

Anniston, Ala., April 8.—News has just reached here that J. C. West, a white man of this city, was kidnaped this afternoon by Will Cunningham, a negro desperado near Lincoln, in Talladega county, and up to this time he has not been rescued. A large armed posse was only an hour behind the pair at dark, and bloodhounds are being rushed to the scene to assist in capturing the negro brute.

It seems that West, acting in the role of special deputy, attempted to arrest Cunningham, and while in the act of reading a warrant to the negro, the negro jerked his pistol from him and marched him off toward the Coosa river. When last seen West was walking about six steps in front of the negro, both having their coats off and walking along as if nothing was the matter. Friends of West here are apprehensive of his safety, and several have gone to Lincoln to join one of the posses. Cunningham is wanted in Georgia on a serious charge.

WORK STARTS ON BIG PLANT.

Bricklaying Begins for Foundation for Americus Power Plant.

Americus, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—Bricklaying was started this morning upon the extensive power plant of the Americus Railway and Light Company, the enterprise which will construct and operate the electric street railway in Americus.

The power plant will be made ready immediately for the installation of the machinery, costing $100,000. Five miles of street railway will be constructed.

GAROTED HER DAUGHTER.

Fearful Act of Texas Woman Temporarly Insane.

Waxahachie, Texas, April 8.—While suffering from temporary insanity, Lucy Williams, wife of a tenant on J. P. Miller's farm, a few miles north of town, killed her twelve-year-old daughter by garroting her with a leather strap, producing strangulation by twisting the strap with a railroad spike.

After killing the child, the woman left the house and wandered in the woods all night.

More Code Failures.

Montgomery, Ala., April 8.—(Special.) It has been discovered that no salary is provided in the new code for the state chemist at Auburn, as compensation for the analyses of fertilizers and other work done by the man who has to look after matters of this kind. The old law provided that he was to have $500 a year and his expenses, but only the expenses are included in the new code. Dr. B. B. Ross is the chemist and it will mean the loss of $500 a year to him from now on.

Big Case Is Let.

Montgomery, Ala., April 8.—(Special.) The case of the Wood-Dickerson Lumber Company, of Birmingham, against a number of Birmingham railroads, is set down for argument before the railroad commission April 23. This is an effort on the part of this and other companies to have the trunk lines that enter Birmingham absorb the switching charges on the Birmingham Southern railroad.

BLACK EYE GIVEN JOHN BARLEYCORN

Little Comfort for Liquor Men in the Illinois Election.

27 COUNTIES VOTED "DRY"

While 19 Others Voted Anti-Saloon with Exception of One Township in Each—Of the 102 Counties in State 36 Are "Dry."

Chicago, April 8.—As a result of yesterday's local option election in Illinois, thirty-six counties out of the 102 in the state are now entirely anti-saloon territory, while nineteen others are anti-saloon, with the exception of one township in each. Twenty-seven of the totally "dry" counties voted on the question yesterday and nine decided to abolish the saloon last November.

According to the latest returns, 886 townships cast their votes against saloons and 304 townships in favor of retaining the saloon. The total number of "dry" townships in the state, including those which held elections last November, is now 1,028, and the total of "wet" townships 323. The most reliable estimates placed the number of saloons voted out of business yesterday at 1,100, and the net anti-saloon majorities cast in the entire territory voting at 28,000.

In all ninety-six counties held elections yesterday, and in that territory it is estimated that there are now in the neighborhood of 3,000 saloons. The result of the election, therefore, will compel more than one-third of this number of saloons to go out of business within thirty days.

$38.000 WAS REFUNDED.

Was Paid by the Santa Fe to Associated Oil Company.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 8.—That the Santa Fe Railroad Company gave refunds amounting to almost $38,000 to the Associated Oil Company last summer on frieght paid for shipments of oil in 1906, was admitted today by Edward Chambers, assistant freight traffic manager of the road, in the hearing before the state railroad commission.

This is the refund referred to in a message by President Roosevelt to congress last January in which the president quoted a portion of Mr. Chambers' letter authorizing a refund. On June 10, 1907, a refund of $30,751 was made to the Associated Oil Company in addition to $7,249 that had been previously voted back to the company. This was on all shipments from the Bakersfield district to San Francisco bay points between January 1 and November 15, 1906.

During that time the Associated Oil Company had a rate of 25 cents a barrel on fuel oil from Bakersfield to San Francisco, when the published rates was 37.8 cents. General Manager Porter, of the Associated Oil Company, desired the rate kept secret, but this, President Ripley refused to allow, according to Mr. Chambers, and it was finally abolished.

305 CADETS WALK PLANK AT CLEMSON

Half the Student Body Expelled From the South Carolina College.

"APRIL FOOL" PRANK CAUSED THE TROUBLE

President Mell Says That He Is Sorry, But Discipline Must Be Maintained—Whole Sections of Classes Wiped Out By the Wholesale Expulsion.

Clemson College, S. C., April 8.—Two hundred and fifty-seven students of Clemson college were this morning dismissed from the institution. This number, with the 49 members of the junior class dismissed on Saturday, aggregates 305 dismissed on account of the All Fools' day escapade, when 309 cadets absented themselves from the campus, drills and classes from 7:45 a. m. until 6 p. m. Of the 309 participants only four were not dismissed. One of these was suspended until September, one acquitted of the charge and two will be dealt with by the commandant.

The testimony in the cases of these young men differed widely from the testimony in the other cases. The discipline committee met last night at 8 o'clock in the president's office. The session lasted until 1 o'clock this morning, when it was announced the committee had determined upon punishment for the participants in the escapade.

Committee in Cession a Week.

The committee has been holding sessions three times a day, excepting Sunday, since last Wednesday—one week ago. At 7:45 o'clock this morning, when the corps formed in line for their regular daily drill, Commandant Minus had his adjutant publish an order directing the participants in the escapade to turn in at the quartermaster's department all college and government properties in their possession.

After all the property had been turned in to the quartermaster, the boys, as directed by Commandant Minus, congregated in the chapel. After all the cadets of the institution were seated, and after the regular chapel services were concluded, President Mell made a short talk, stating that, though he was sorry for the boys dismissed, yet discipline had to be preserved. When he had finished, he handed Cadet Adjutant Tindall an order to be published at once. This order provided for the dismissal from the college of 43 members of the preparatory class, 132 members of the freshman class and 82 members of the sophomore class. The majority of the dismissed cadets have been anticipating such a sentence for several days.

The faculty will be compelled to revise the classes now. Many sections in the freshmen and sophomore classes were almost totally wiped out. The revisions are now being made, and everything is progressing smoothly and without friction.

There are about 400 students left in the institution.

Statement by Dr. Mell.

Dr. Mell has furnished the following statement:

"To the Editor of the State: In reply to your telegram, I make the following comments concerning the troubles brought on Clemson by the outbreak of a large number of the cadets on April 1. The dismission of these cadets by the discipline committee has emphasized the important fact that conspiracy on the part of the college students against authority, it makes no difference how large the number may be, cannot stand against law impartially administered. The issue was made at Clemson: Who shall rule, the cadets or the authorities? The discipline committee has answered in terms which cannot be misunderstood in the future. The morning after the outbreak against the regulations the discipline committee was called in session by myself to calmly and thoroughly investigate the entire matter.

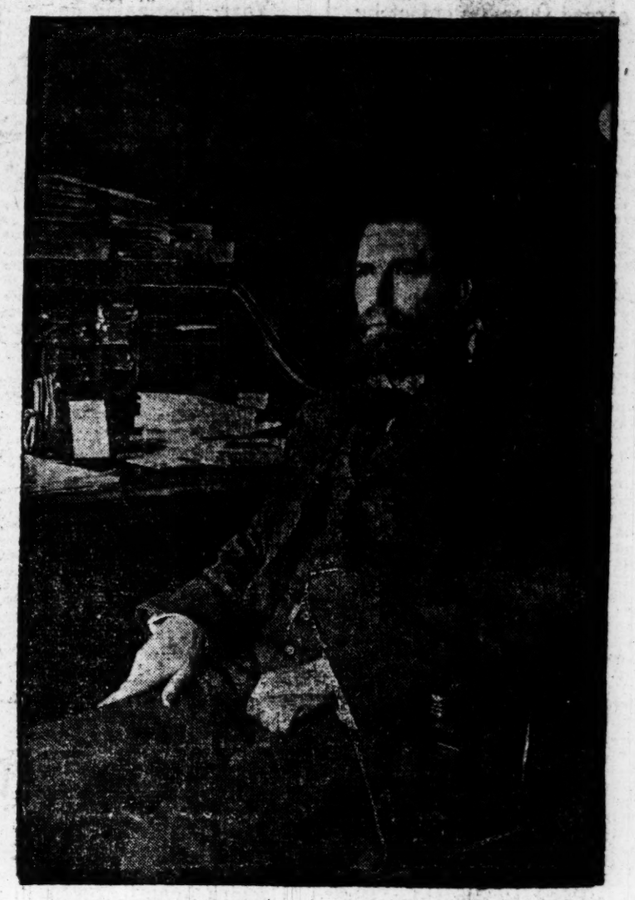

"The committee was in session morning, afternoon and night, from Wednesday, the 1st, until Tuesday night, the 7th. Each boy was given a fair and impartial examination, and was allowed to state his case as fully as he desired, all testimony being taken down by a stenographer. No one was dismissed who did not admit his part in the violation of the regulations, and that of his own free will and accord he had entered into the conspiracy to break the laws of the college.

Reasons Are Given.

"The students who were sent out from Clemson college were dismissed for the following offenses: First, holding a mass meeting in violation of the college regulations, and defying the same by absenting themselves from all college duties; second, defiantly parading in the presence of and against the orders of the commandant and the cadet officers, after having refused to report to morning drill; third, deserting the college and going to the neighboring town of Pendleton, where they spent the day; fourth, binding themselves by a sworn document to stand together, and pledging that, in case any of the number were dismissed, they would all desert the college and go home. I desire to extend deepest sympathy to the parents upon whom has been brought this sad experience. And in this message to them the other authorities of the college join.

"P. P. MELL."

HE LOST THE ANTI-GAMBLING FIGHT

GOVERNOR CHARLES E. HUGHES, OF NEW YORK.

ACTRESS SHIED AT TIGHTS AND GOT VERDICT FOR $4,000

New York, April 8.—A verdict for $4,700 was awarded by a jury in the supreme court today to an actress who was discharged by a theatrical manager because she refused to appear on the stage in tights. The plaintiff was Henrietta Lee Morrison, who is known on the stage as Henrietta Lee, and the defendants, Hurtig and Seamen, proprietors of a Harlem burlesque theater. Miss Lee and her husband, Charles P. Morrison, were engaged by Hurtig and Seamon for a season in a musical comedy under a contract which provided that they were to receive $8,950. At the end of three months, the manager directed Miss Lee to make certain changes in her costume which would necessitate her appearance on the stage in tights. When she refused to make the changes directed, she and her husband were discharged. They brought suit for a breach of contract and a jury, after fifteen minutes' deliberation, awarded them damages to the full amount sued for, minus the amount they earned after their discharge.

WOMEN KILLED WHILE IN GRIEF

Four Persons Meet Death Returning From Funeral.

TRAIN STRUCK CARRIAGE

Four Women Occupants Were Killed Outright and the Driver So Badly Injured That He Soon Died—Carriage Was Cut in Twain.

Chicago, April 8.—Four women occupants of a carriage were instantly killed and the driver was fatally injured this afternoon when the vehicle was struck by an electric train on the Chicago, Elgin and Aurora railroad, near Maywood, a suburb. The carriage was one of a number that were returning from a funeral. The driver died a few hours later at a hospital to which he had been taken.

The dead:

MRS. F. ROHLOFF, 65 years old, and her daughter-in-law,

MRS. PAUL ROHLOFF, 29 years of age.

MRS. CHARLES DRESSEL.

MRS. MINNIE POTTHOFF, 36 years of age, and

FRANK NEWMAN,

All were residents of Chicago.

The carriage was cut in twain, and the rear portion was carried several hundred feet along the tracks before the train could be stopped.

COUNTED THEM ANYWAY.

"Uncle Joe" Not Particular Whether Republicans Vote or Not.

Washington, April 8.—Just before the house took a recess today until tomorrow, Mr. Shackelford, of Missouri, taking advantage of the fact that many republicans had left the chamber, sought to have acted upon a resolution by him asking information regarding the shortage in the subtreasury at St. Louis, which occurred in 1906. A motion by Mr. Payne to lay the resolution on the table was carried by a bare majority of three, the vote standing 126 to 123. Mr. Shackelford charged when the result was announced that neither Mr. Bartholdt, of Missouri, nor Mr. Calderhead, of Kansas, had voted, although they were recorded in the affirmative. The speaker called upon Mr. Calderhead to state whether or not he voted, and he replied: "I think I did."

Several members on the republican side declared that he did vote and the vote was allowed to stand. In the case of Mr. Bartholdt, who had left the chamber, Speaker Cannon ruled that the testimony of several members that he voted on the roll call was sufficient and he refused to have the vote stricken out.

PRICE QUITS COTTON MARKET

He Has Decided to Retire for the Next Two Years.

ALL COTTON TRADES CLOSED

He Had Been Carrying Thousands of Bales of the May Option—Price Will Make His Home in Maine.

New York, April 8.—Theodore H. Price, veteran of a score of campaigns in the cotton market, has decided to retire from speculation for the next two years, in order to devote his entire attention to his only son, whose health has caused his parents considerable worry.

Mr. Price announced today that he had closed out all his cotton commitments, amounting to thousands of bales of the May option. He also has reinsured the business of the Eagle Fire Insurance Company and will liquidate that concern, the stock of which he controls. He has advertised the sale of his horses and carriages at public auction. It is probable that he will make his residence in Maine for the next two years.

SHE SEIZED MAN BY FEET.

Jail Delivery Is Prevented by the Bravery of Sheriff's Daughter.

Murphysboro, Ill., April 8.—Miss Sera Hanson, 17 years of age, daughter of Sheriff Sylvester Hanson, interrupted a jail delivery during a storm early today. She was awakened by the storm and glancing out the window was surprised to see prisoners climbing down past her window as they escaped from jail. Bravely she seized the feet of one man and held on while she screamed lustily to her parents. Her mother went to her assistance and held to the prisoner while Sheriff Hanson rushed into the cell room and prevented seven prisoners from leaving. Six prisoners had effected their escape through a window from which a bar had been pried. Four of the fugitives are negroes.

ALL COTTON WILL BE HELD.

Arrangements Between Bankers and Farmers' Union.

Jackson, Miss., April 8.—At a conference of the executive committee of the Farmers' Union with several of the leading bankers of the state held here today arrangements were perfected to hold every bale of cotton on storage in union warehouses until the 1st of September. The bankers promise to give all needed financial assistance to keep the remainder of the crop off the market.

HUGHES LOSES IN HIS BATTLE WITH GAMBLERS

Bills Designed to Stop Gambling at Race Tracks Defeated by N. Y. Senate.

25 SENATORS FAVORED AND 25 OPPOSED BILLS

Foes of the Measures Were Balked in Effort to Give Final Death Blow and There Is Possibility of Another Vote by the Senate.

Albany, N. Y., April 8.—The vote of Senator Owen Cassidy, of Schuyler, republican, late today, caused a tie vote of 25 to 25, and defeated, for the time at least, the two Agnew-Hart bills embodying the recommendation of Governor Hughes that legal protection be abolished which since 1895 has protected public gambling at race tracks, whereas it is a felony elsewhere in the state.

Lieutenant Governor Chanler, in the chair, by casting his vote to break the tie upon a parliamentary motion, which but for him would have resulted in killing the bills for the rest of the session, saved them for another vote at the discretion of their introducer, Senator Agnew, at any time when the order of business permits him to call up the matter. The importance of this parliamentary proceeding may prove very great, and if the friends of the bill can win a vote from the opposition and at the same time hold the twenty-five they had today, they might yet pass the bills and send them to the governor.

Hughes Bitterly Disappointed.

Governor Hughes made no secret of his disappointment over the result of the day's struggle. He would not intimate what measures he would adopt in the premises, but that he regards the matter as far from settled he made clear by the following statement issued in the executive chamber tonight:

"It is impossible to believe that the people will permit the plain mandate of the constitution to be ignored. The contest has not ended. It has only begun. It will continue until the will of the people has been obeyed."

The vote came at the end of a day so dramatic and intense that people who have been about the capitol for a generation say they remember nothing like it. Until the vote of Senator Wilcox, last on the list, was cast against the bills, the result was apparently in doubt, although for three days the opposition has expressed confidence that he would vote as he actually did.

Senator Bitterly Disappointed.

The most remarkable feature of the day involved the mysterious absence of Senator Fancher of Cattaraugus. He was known to intend to support the bills, and his vote was indispensable to their passage. Messengers searched for him all the morning, without result, and the charge was freely made by the supporters of the bills that his absence was involuntary, and would prove to be the result of a conspiracy. When a recess was taken at 2 o'clock, he was still missing.

He appeared at last when the recess was about half gone, with nothing to say for publication, but a story about his absence told privately was accepted by the supporters of the bill as confirming their suspicions and in its details, convulsed everybody who heard it. The gist of it was that he had outwitted those who would have detained him and as he put it, "here I am in time to vote for the bills, as I have all along intended to do."

Senators Who Changed.

Senator Cassidy, who the supporters of the bills hold responsible for their defeat, voted on two previous occasions in their favor, although the friends of the measure admit that he has never promised to support them on final passage.

Until 11 o'clock Senator Grattan, of Albany, was declared to be in favor of the bills. At that time, after conferring with the leaders of the Albany county republican organization, he went to Senator Agnew and announced that he would vote against them.

Senator Knapp, of Clinton, until late in the morning, was regarded as practically certain to vote for the bills, but about the same time he also announced that he would vote against them.

There was some doubt all day as to the vote of Senator Foelker, of Kings, but when the vote came he adhered to the position he had all along taken in their favor.

Full Senate Present.

All of the fifty members of the senate were present, the only vacant seat being that of Senator Franchot, of Niagara Falls, who died recently. It seems to be generally agreed that he would have supported the bills.

Twenty-three republicans and two democrats voted for the bills; seventeen democrats and eight republicans voted against them. The two democrats in the affirmative were:

Fuller, of Kings, and Taylor, of Orange. The eight republicans in the negative were: Burr, of Suffolk; Cassidy, of Schuyler; Emerson, of Warren; Gilchrist, of Kings; Grattan, of Albany; Knapp, of Clinton; Wemple, of Schenectady, and Wilcox, of Cayuga.

After the defeat of the bills, Senator Agnew made the usual motion, "that the vote by which the bills were lost be reconsidered and that the motion lie upon the table."

Then, apparently realizing that the defeat of this motion by the same vote which had defeated his bills would kill the measures beyond rescue, Senator Agnew withdrew it. Instantly Senator Grady, who is a past master at parliamentary strategy, seized the apparent advantage and renewed the motion.

It Was Up to the Chamber.

Senator Raine came quickly to the rescue of his bill with a motion to table that of Senator Grady. Attention was then called by Senator Armstrong to the fact that in these circumstances the presiding officer would have the deciding vote.

Senator Grady urgently appealed to the lieutenant governor and to his colleagues for support of his motion, but the lieutenant governor said that, while the point immediately at issue was a motion of the minority leader, the question really involved was the right of Senator Agnew to control the time at which the vote upon his own bill should be reconsidered. In support, he said, of the precedent of "senatorial courtesy," he would give Senator Agnew his vote. This action saved the bills from utter destruction, and made possible another contest.

Under the rules of the senate, the presiding officer has the deciding vote in case of a tie upon all purely parliamentary questions. He has no vote upon the direct question of the passage of the bills. For this reason he could not have broken the tie by which the bills were defeated.

Technical Point.

There is an incidental question, technical but important, whether in the case of one of the bills, the procedure has not left Senator Agnew with only three days in which to move reconsideration. The parliamentarians were earnestly discussing this tonight.

Whether Governor Hughes will call an extra session to begin, perhaps, immediately upon the adjournment of the regular session consideration of this and perhaps other matters, is the subject of speculation tonight. Not a syllable can be obtained from the executive chamber upon that aspect of the question.

Arbitration Treaties Reported.

Washington, April 8.—Arbitration treaties with Great Britain and Portugal and a naturalization treaty with Salvador were ordered favorably reported today by the senate committee on foreign relations.

MUCH WORRIED BY STATEMENT

Georgia Members Deeply Concerned Over Statement by President Roosevelt.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, April 8.—(Special.)—Several members of congress who have introduced bills for new public buildings in their respective districts are deeply concerned after the statement President Roosevelt made to the members of the North Carolina Peace Society that he would veto the omnibus public buildings bill if congress refused to authorize the construction of four new battleships this year.

During the present session the following bills for the erection of federal buildings in Georgia towns have been introduced:

One of the Best Known Newspaper Men in New York.

New York, April 8.—Langdon Smith, newspaper man, war correspondent and one of the best known special writers in New York, died tonight of malignant erysipelas, at his home in Brooklyn, aged 50 years. During his journalistic career of more than twenty years in New York, Mr. Smith had been connected with The New York World, The Herald and The American. He served as war correspondent in Cuba during the Cuban insurrection, and also throughout the Spanish-American war being present at the battles of Guantanamo, El Caney and San Juan.

More than a score of years ago Mr. Smith was known as one of the most expert telegraphers in the world. Among telegraphers he was known from California to New York as "Denver" Smith. As a poet, Mr. Smith's best known verses are "Bessie McCall" and "Evolution," the latter having a wide circulation when it appeared several years ago. He was born in Kentucky.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

Five Weeks' Term for This Year, Beginning on June 15.

The public schools committee, composed of L. Z. Rosser, chairman, Courtland S. Winn, C. D. Meador and S. N. Evins, met yesterday to decide several questions of moment. The matter of the time for the opening of the city schools was considered first, and the date set was September 14. June 15 was the time agreed upon for the teachers' summer school to open, and five weeks was set as a limit for its continuance. The recent request of Mrs. William Nixon that a night teacher be sent to take a class at the Atlanta woolen mills, was voted upon favorably.

VIRGINIA VOTE GOES TO TAFT

Republican Convention Also Decides Against Negro in Party Councils.

Lynchburg, Va., April 8.—The Virginia republicans in state convention here tonight, after electing Colonel William Lamb, of Norfolk, chairman, passed resolutions reaffirming republican principles, indorsing the Roosevelt administration and instructing the four delegates-at-large to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of William H. Taft at the Chicago national convention, the resolutions as reported being unanimously adopted.

After numerous nominating speeches for delegates-at-large and a call of the counties and cities, the following were chosen:

C. B. Slemp, of Big Stone Gap; Alvah H. Martin, of Norfolk; S. G. Proffitt, of Floyd, and S. Brown Allen, of Staunton.

The alternates were:

John B. Kimberly, O. B. Oakley, Henry Bowen and B. B. Bowen.

State Senator Noel, of Pennington Gap, and General J. E. Roller, of Harrisonburg, were named electors-at-large without opposition.

Congressman C. B. Slemp was re-elected state chairman without opposition and at midnight the convention adjourned.

The convention was practically against continuing the negro in the party councils in the future and addresses favorable to this never failed to arouse enthusiasm.

Practically the same feeling was apparent with respect to the federal officeholders.

CAMPAIGN PUBLICITY BILLS.

Belmont and Chandler Reply to Statement of Gaines.

Washington, April 8.—With reference to the authorship and the purpose of the publicity bills now pending in the senate and house, Perry Belmont, president of the National Publicity Bill Organization, and former Senator Chandler, of the committee on legislation tonight gave out a statement asserting that Representative Gaines of West Virginia, chairman of the house committee to which the publicity bill has been referred, in his published statement gave an erroneous impression as to the McCall bill. This bill, Messrs. Belmont and Chandler say, was originally drafted by Judge John F. Dillon, of the law committee of the Publicity Association, and not by Mr. Belmont, who is chairman of the legislative committee of the same association.

Equally incorrect, it is is further declared, is Mr. Gaines' statement that the bill would not make public campaign contributions, but simply divert such contributions from national committees to smaller committees; from those having the greater publicity; that it would make public no contributions except as some rich man might contribute to one party or the other for the purpose of giving himself standing in that party."

On the other hand, Messrs. Chandler and Belmont say that the National Publicity Organization does not assume to invent any new plan of organization, but the proposed national law is the natural sequence, developed from the operation of state laws upon similar lines. The publicity association, it is further asserted, is of the opinion that it should advocate only the enactment of a law for the publicity of contributions made to the national and congressional committees of the political parties, leaving legislation concerning contributions to state and other local committees to be dealt with by state laws.

Nineteen states, it is expalined, already have adopted such publicity laws.

Meeting Closes at Covington.

Covington, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The protracted meeting at the Baptist church closed here last night with the ordinance of baptism. There were ten accessions to this church. W. D. Upshaw followed Rev. R. L. Motley, and for three days spoke to packed houses on the themes of salvation. He left last night for Aiken, S. C., where he was called to take part in the campaign against the dispensary. He has engagements already in several other states to wage war on the saloon. This town has been greatly stirred by the preaching of these two Atlanta speakers. This church has nearly doubled in numbers in two years. Rev. R. L. Motley is assisting in a meeting in Senoia this week, and in his absence from his own pulpit next Sunday, Rev. Eugene R. Pendlton, pastor at Covington, will preach at the Central Baptist church in Atlanta.

vessels as indicated during the coming fiscal year:

England—Three battleships of the Dreadnought type, one fast unarmored cruiser, five ocean-going destroyers, twelve first-class torpedo boats, twelve submarines—$39,418,650. France—Five destroyers, ten submarines—$18,696,346. Germany—two battleships, one armored cruiser, two scout cruisers, twelve destroyers and several submarines—$30,575,860. Japan—$17,965,793 for construction and repairs, including the restoration of Russian warships taken as prizes. Russia—$15,000,000 for construction and repairs. Brazil—Three battleships, two scout cruisers, eighteen torpedo boats and destroyers.

The relative positions of the several powers in naval strength is shown to be as follows:

Ships Built—Great Britain, United States, France, Germany, Japan, Russia, Italy, Austria.

Ships Built and Building—Great Britain, France, United States, Germany, Japan, Russia, Italy, Austria.

Hobson Wants Four Battleships.

Representative Hobson, of Alabama, submitted a minority report recommending that provision be made in the bill for four first-class battleships instead of two.

In his report Mr. Hobson says:

Four battleships are recommended by the general board of the navy, four are recommended by the secretary of the navy, four are recommended by the secretary of the navy, four are recommended by the president of the United States. Though considerations of expediency have led the committee to the recommendation of two at this session, in reality four would, we believe, conform to the conviction of the majority of the committee on naval affairs as to the needs of the navy.

"These needs have grown rapidly in the last few years, due to the nation's growth and to the development in Asia. Our existing navy has been built primarily for the needs of one ocean. We now suddenly find needs in two oceans. The needs in the Atlantic have not diminished, and the needs in the Pacific are fully as great. To meet these double needs we have only ships enough for one fleet. When this fleet is in the Atlantic we are defenseless in the Pacific; when it is in the Pacific we are defenseless in the Atlantic. The completion of the Panama canal will not obviate the necessity for two fleets, for we are liable to have the demand for protection in both oceans at the same time.

"Coincident with the doubling of the needs of our navy there has been a revolution in naval architecture, bringing forth a new type of armored vessels of 17,000 tons and upwards. All the other nations have responded quickly with a program of rapid construction. We have lagged behind.

A Vision of War.

"To hold our present position of naval strength among the nations of Europe would require laying down not less than six of these vessels this year. To hold our present position among the nations of Asia would require an equal number. Therefore, in meeting the simultaneous demands from Europe and Asia both the number of vessels recommended in this minority report is an irreducible minimum.

"It may be remarked at this critical juncture, when the world is drifting toward wars, the failure on the part of America to build up the naval power adequate to keep peace in the Pacific ocean will be liable not only to entail a war between America and Japan, but ultimately a war between the white race and the yellow race, and would prevent the carrying of the gospel of peace throughout Asia. The true policy for a Christian to advocate is to have his country, the great peace country, keep their peace secure and create the keep the peace secure and create the myriads of Asia and carry the gospel 'until every knee shall bow.'"

ALEX. CHISOLM A WITNESS.

Testified at New Orleans in Case Against Gibert & Clay.

New Orleans, La., April 8.—Alexander R. Chisolm, who is serving a term in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., was one of the principal witnesses here today in the suit of the First National bank, of Birmingham, Ala., against Gibert & Clay, cotton brokers.

In the suit it is averred that money stolen by Chisolm when he was paying teller of the Birmingham bank was used by him in speculating in cotton futures and that Gibert & Clay permitted him to carry on his transactions under an assumed name.

FIRED TWO SHOTS AT BRIDE.

Groom Then Sent a Bullet Through Own Head.

New York, April 8.—Without warning and apparent motive Albert Heiser, a baker, suddenly drew a revolver, at the dinner table tonight, fired two shots at his young bride and then killed himself by sending a bullet through his brain at their home on Lexington avenue. Mrs. Heiser, who was twice wounded in the body, is not expected to recover. She told the police that her husband had been jealous of her, but could not say why he had attempted to take her life.

Forestry Law Conviction.

Montgomery, Ala., April 8.—(Special.)—The first man to fall under the penalty of the new forestry protection law is Ed Coulston, of Monroeville, Monroe county, he having been fined $25 on Monday for setting fire to the woods. The charge was "maliciously setting fire to forests or woods," the action being brought and prosecuted by County Game Warden W. C. Neville. The money has been covered into the state treasury to the credit of the forestry protection fund. State Game and Fish Commissioner John H. Wallace, Jr., is very much pleased with the dispatch with which this first known violation of the new law was met and cared for.

Gave Officers Long Chase.

Macon, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—Rich Solomon, a young negro, led three officers of the Macon police force a long chase through Tybee and into the river swamp this morning when they attempted to close in on him in a house where he had been spotted. The negro is supposed to be the party who struck W. H. Elliott over the head several weeks ago and then robbed the old man's store of a considerable sum in cash. Several shots were fired at the negro by Officer Jobson, but he was never stopped.

EVANS FIGHTS BATTLE OF LIFE

Despite Cheerful Reports the Admiral Is Very Sick Man.

Paso Robles, Hot Springs, Cal., April 8.—Read Admiral Robley D. Evans spent a very quiet day today. He appeared to be rather feeble this morning. He was somewhat depressed and complained of being weary.

Later in the day, however, he recovered his spirits and apparently felt much better. Surgeon P. E. McDonald stated tonight that the admiral had had a very good day.

Despite the assertions of Dr. McDonald that Admiral Evans is gaining strength rapidly, the impression is gaining ground around the hotel that he is fighting the hardest battle of his life. While relieved from all acute pain as a result of the treatment at the springs, it is apparent that he is still in a very weak condition, and that recovery will be a matter of many weeks. The second day of his arrival here he was out on the lawn watching a game of croquet. The third day he was taken for a two hours' drive. Since then he has not left his wheel chair. It is also said that his baths have been reduced because of his weak condition. Dr. McDonald, however, refused to confirm this. Asked if Admiral Evans was suffering from any organic disease which was tending to make his recovery slow, Dr. McDonald was non-commitatl and declared that he thought the admiral had done very well since his arrival here.

Atlanta Banker Reelected to New York Life Board.

New York, April 8.—Alexander E. Orr, who for many years was a director and for a time president of the New York Life Insurance company, retired as director of the company at the annual meeting today. Mr. Orr gave his advanced age and the state of his health as the reason for his withdrawal.

The resignation of Clarence N. Mackay as a director also was received at the meeting. William R. Innis, of this city, and Rowland G. Hazard, of Peacedale, R. I., were elected to fill the vacancies on the board caused by these resignations.

There were no so-called independent nominations this year and ten members of the old board were reelected without opposition. They were:

John E. Andrus, of Yonkers, N. Y.; Julius Fleischmann, of Cincinnati; Thomas P. Fowler, of New York; A. Barton Hepburn, of New York; Granger A. Hollister, of Rochester; Woodbury Langdon, of New York; Robert J. Lowery, of Atlanta, Ga.; Henry C. Mortimer, of New York; William B. Plunkett, of Adams, Mass., and Elbridge G. Snow, of New York.

FRANCE WILL HOLD ROY.

But the Alleged Murderer May Be Prosecuted in France.

Paris, April 8.—The ministry of justice, to which the foreign office turned over the request of the United States for the extradition of Paul E. Roy, a Frenchman who married an American woman known as Glacia Calla, and who has been accused by his wife of killing her brother at Newington, N. H., has decided that no law exists in this country under which Roy can be given over to the American authorities. The ministry of justice declares that it would be a violation of France's principle, which is not to deliver a citizen charged with a crime in a foreign country, but it rules that Roy can be prosecuted in France.

MINERS SIGN CONTRACT.

Texas Miners Agree to Practically Same Wage Scale.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 8.—Tomorrow morning representatives of coal operators and miners of Texas will affix their signatures to an agreement which will insure peaceful operations of the mines until April 1, 1909.

The miners will bind themselves to work during the year ending April 1, 1909, under practically the same conditions and upon almost the identical wage scale as prevailed for the previous year. Final settlement of all disputes was reached early this evening.

SUBMARINE SCANDAL.

No More Evidence Will Be Heard Until Next Week.

Washington, April 8.—The special committee of the house appointed to investigate the charges made by Representative Geo. Lilley, of Connecticut, against the methods pursued by the Electric Boat company to obtain legislation, will hear no more testimony until next Tuesday. When the committee met today, Chairman Boutell announced that the continued illness of Mr. Olmsted's daughter prevented his attendance at this time and owing to that fact and the further fact that the committee desired time in which to prepare evidence in its proper order, an adjournment would be taken until the date mentioned.

The rain hesitated through the day in its disposition to fall, the result being there was no fall. A few more clouds were present, but generally there was a fair condition.

There will be an Easter egg hunt this year in spite of everything. The frolic is going to take place in order that the children of Atlanta may have a good time. It will be "sorter" hot on that day.

REV. DR. PATTON WILL SPEAK AT TODAY'S LENTEN SERVICE

Rev. Dr. R. W. Patton, of Richmond, Va., will have charge of the noonday Lenten services at the Y. M. C. A. building today. As Dr. Patton has a national reputation, the short addresses which he will make today and at each nooday service for the remainder of this week are certain to prove entertaining and helpful.

Bishop Nelson made the address yesterday, bringing his series of three talks to a most successful conclusion. These short addresses, which have been given each day this week, have been among the most practical and beneficial of any since the Lenten services began with Ash-Wednesday. While each address had a bearing on that given the previous day, each was complete in itself. Taking "Direction" as his subject yesterday, he followed out many of the suggestions of his address on "Discipline" the day before to a logical and helpful conclusion. While bearing on the great need for proper direction, he warned his hearers against the carrying of direction to excess or such a point as prevented the development or strengthening of the individual will power or conscience and permitted of direction giving way to absolute dictation.

As the enten season draws near its end more and more strangers are availing themselves of this short half-hour of meditation and service in the middle of the business day. Exceptionally fine speakers have been secured for all of the remaining services and every one is urged to attend and bring a friend.

BRINSON ROAD TO ISSUE BONDS

Railroad Commission to Give Its Approval of the Issue Asked.

The railroad commission yesterday heard application from George M. Brinson, president of the Brinson Railroad Company, now engaged in constructing a line of railroad from Savannah to Athens, Ga., a distance of 180 miles, for permission to issue $2,500,000 first mortgage bonds, the proceeds to be used in the construction of the road.

Only two of the commissioners were present, but after hearing Mr. Brinson they stated they would recommend favorable action by the commission, and that action will be taken at the meeting to be held this morning. Besides this bond issue the company will have only $250,000 of stock. It is proposed to give those citizens of the counties through which the new line is to run, who subscribe to the project, bonds instead of stock.

Mr. Brinson stated that there are now about thirty miles of the road built and in operation between Savannah and points in Effingham county.

"I am still pushing the work on the line," he stated, "and intend to keep it up. It is a matter of pride with me when I once start work not to give it up until I have accomplished my object. In the recent hard times my force fell to as low as three or four men, but the work still went on. I am frank to say that if I had not begun the work before the financial depression came on, I would not have started it now. But having begun it, it is my purpose to push it on to the finish."

DALTON WOMAN DROPPED DEAD

Was Hastening to Bedside of Husband She Thought Dying.

Dalton, Ga., April 8.—Late this afternoon, while hastening to the bedside of her husband, whom she thought dying, Mrs. W. H. Pruden fell to the floor and died a few minutes afterwards. Colonel W. H. Pruden, husband of the deceased, is in a critical condition, and it is doubtful that he will live until morning.

Colonel Pruden, who is the oldest and one of the most respected citizens of Dalton, has been in declining health for nearly a year, and his wife had been his constant companion. He was taken worse this week, and this afternoon it was believed he was dying. He had a fainting spell and his head fell over on the pillow, when his wife hastened to him. She had reached the foot of the bed, when she sank on the floor, dying in the arms of her son, Frank Pruden. When Colonel Pruden regained consciousness, he called for his wife, but he was not notified of her death, as it was thought that such a revelation would prove fatal to him.

Colonel and Mrs. Pruden have been living in this city for a number of years, having moved here from Columbus, Ga. He is manager of the fire insurance company of W. H. Pruden & Son, the largest concern of its kind in the city. Besides her husband, the deceased is survived by two sons.

MACON LAUNCHES ANOTHER BOAT

Miss Claudia Ross Christened New Freight Steamer.

CLAUDE ESTES WAS SPEAKER

As the Vessel Went Into the River a Bottle of White Elk Water Was Broken Across the Bow by Miss Ross.

Brown House, Macon, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The Macon shipping interests were shoved another link forward in the launching of the W. E. Small, a new freight steamer that will be ready for service between the 1st and 15th of May. The christening was done by one of Macon's most attractive young ladies, Miss Claudia Ross, daughter of Judge John P. Ross. As the vessel went into the river a bottle of White Elk water was broken across the bow. The work was done with grace and ease, and in the midst of cheers from a large gathering of people at the river banks near the entrance to Central City park.

Claude Estes was speaker of the afternoon. He devoted his attention to the apparent progress in the commercial interests of the city and community, despite the cry of hard times. He recounted the vast savings to the business people of Macon there would be in the operation of the two steamers.

Assisting Miss Ross were Misses Jennie Riley, Miss Martha Lewis and Miss Jane Bardwell. The young ladies did their parts with the eagerness and enthusiasm that was everywhere manifested in the large gathering of people present on the occasion. A. E. Chappell, of the navigation company, was chairman of the committee on arrangements for the occasion, and everything was done with nothing to mar. The vessel is distinctly a freighter, and is named after President Emmett Small, of the navigation company.

TORE DOWN STOVE TO FIGHT.

Kinsey Is Charged With Trying to Shoot Haines.

Savannah, April 8.—(Special.)—Garrard Haines, last year graduate of Georgia Tech, will appear as prosecutor in the city court Friday against W. M. Kinsey, money lender, who is charged with attempting to shoot the young athlete.

Kinsey, it is said, tried to shoot Haines, pressing the muzzle of a pistol against his breast. They struggled and the Tech boy tore a stove down by slamming his man against it. They were covered with soot. A woman, living in Kinsey's house, went to the latter's rescue but young Haines disarmed his opponent. Kinsey was fined $25 for his share in the trouble by Recorder Schwarz and will face the charging of attempting to use his pistol, when the case is called in the city court.

LIVELY RACE IN CHATHAM.

A Number of Candidates Announced for the Various Offices.

Savannah, April 8.—(Special.)—As an opponent of Judge Walter G. Charlton, recently appointed to succeed Judge George T. Gann, resigned, Attorney James F. Evans has announced his candidacy for the office of judge of the superior court. Judge Charlton will make the race.

The solicitor general's race has narrowed so far as avowed candidate are concerned to three men, W. C. Hartridge, R. J. Travis and Gordon Saussy.

The present clerk of the superior court, J. K. P. Carr, is opposed by former Alderman W. L. Grayson. Sheriff T. F. Screven is opposed by W. C. McDonough and Michael Naughtin.

J. W. McIntyre, Jr., city court sheriff; is opposed by J. J. Harrigan. The coroner's race is four-sided. Major John Schwartz, former mayor, former alderman, former sheriff of Chatham county, opposes Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley; Dr. I. Keller, former coroner and John Goette, former coroner. Curiously enough the race for this office is the liveliest of the lot.

NEGROES AIDED BY ROOSEVELT

In the Fight for Equal Accommodations on Railways.

MOVE AGAINST RAILROADS

President Orders Attorney General to Proceed Against Southern Roads in an Effort to Force Them to Provide Equal Accommodations.

Washington, April 8.—President Roosevelt today made public his letter of April 2d to the attorney general directing proceedings by injunction to compel certain railroads of the south to furnish equal accommodations to white and negro passengers.

The President's Letter.

The text of the president's letter is as follows:

"To the Department of Justice: I forward herewith the report of the interstate commerce commission containing its order of June 27, 1907, and the report of the failure of the railroad companies to obey this order, under date of March 26, 1908, together with a letter of the commission of April 1, 1908. It appears that the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway Company has not complied with the order of the commission to furnish the same facilities to colored passengers paying first-class fare that are furnished to white passengers paying first-class fare. From time to time various complaints have been made to me by reputable colored people to the effect that the accommodations furnished to colored persons on certain railways are filthy and inadequate compared to the same accommodations furnished to white passengers paying the same fare. The commission has taken what is unquestionably the right ground; that where separate accommodations are provided for white and colored passengers the accommodations for colored passengers shall be as good as those furnished to white passengers for the same money.

Accommodations Must Be Equal.

"In other worth, while there is nothing in the law which forbids separate accommodations, these accommodations must be equal. This principle of equality of accommodations is set out explicitly in various state laws. For instance, the code of the state of Alabama provides that there shall be 'equal but separate accommodations for the white and colored races, by providing two or more passenger cars for each passenger train, or by dividing the passenger cars by partitions.' The action of the commission has simply been to insist that the accommodations be equal in convenience and comfort, for the same money, whereever the separation is made.

"In this particular case where the railway has neglected to comply with the order of the commission it is important that compliance with this order be immediately obtained. I suggest that you proceed to enforce the order by injunction proceedings unless in your judgment some other course is preferable.

He invited Congressman Bartlett to meet him there at that time, but it is understood that he was unable to leave Washington to accept the invitation.

PAPER COMBINE TO FEEL PROBE

House Adopts Cannon's Resolutions for an Investigation.

Washington, April 8.—By unanimous vote the house committee on the judiciary today agreed to report favorably the "paper trust" resolutions introduced April 2, by Speaker Cannon.

One of these resolutions directs the attorney general to inform the house what steps have been taken to investigate and prosecute the International Paper company of New York, and other corporations or combinations engaged in the manufacture of wood pulp or print paper.

The other resolution directs the secretary of commerce and labor to inform the house what steps have been taken by the bureau of corporations towards investigating the alleged "paper trust."

The resolutions were subsequently called up in the house and passed.

After Mr. Clayton, Alabama, had denounced the paper trust as "A criminal trade conspiracy," and Mr. Williams had called attention to the facility with which the resolutions had been reported because they had been offered by the speaker, Mr. Payne, chairman of the committee on ways and means, got the floor. "Does any one suppose," said he, "that by the passage of a bill putting wood pulp or paper on the free list in the twinkling of an eye, you can transfer the industry from the United States to Canada, or that under those circumstances the Canadian parliament will not impose an extra export duty on pulp logs? If that were done," he inquired, "when would you get your relief, where would you get your cheaper paper? Where in the name of common sense would you benefit anybody in this country?"

Mr. Payne said he knew there was some "cheap talk" about taxing intelligence, but he asked "why not hear this subject as intelligent men and not go into hysterics over the matter?"

Mr. Payne said that the difficulty was that the democrats felt that there were too many votes behind the newspaper people of the country, "who, under a protection which comes not from the tariff, but from localities that have a monopoly on the newspaper business of the United States, try to rush congress into the idea, without investigation, without looking into the facts, and without determining whether you will deprive thirty-eight thousand people of the means of livelihood and force the removal of tax."

MISS ANNIE RUTH NORTON MARRIES HENRY M. BURKE

Miss Annie Ruth Norton, of East Point, and Henry Mitchell Burke, of Atlanta, were quietly married late yesterday afternoon at the residence of Alonzo Kemp, 164 Haynes street, Rev. A. C. Ward performing the ceremony. It is believed that the wedding was a runaway affair—carefully planned to overcome parental objection, or possibly to gratify a whim of the participants, who preferred a simple ceremony, unattended with the usual display. After the solemn act was pronounced, the bride hinted that the outside world were oblivious of the situation. Even solicitous relatives were slighted, and the happy couple will proceed at once to seek reconciliation in order that their happiness may be complete.

SAVANNAH RETURNED MONEY TO LOCKER CLUBS

Action Was Taken by the City Council Over the Veto of Mayor Tiedeman.

Savannah, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—Over the veto of Mayor Tiedeman the city council tonight passed a resolution returning the locker club proprietors the licenses paid by them at the opening of the year.

The clubs were put out of business a few weeks ago by the decision of Federal Judge Speer. The city license was $250.

MUST DECIDE IN FIVE DAYS

Dispensary Commission of South Carolina Given That Time by Pritchard.

Asheville, N. C., April 8.—The South Carolina dispensary commission is practically given five days by the United States circuit court in which to decide whether or not it will comply with the conditions prescribed by the court in the consolidated case of the Fleischman and Wilson companies against it and so secure a supersedeas which will stay all proceedings pending the appeal from the commission to court of appeals or surrender the $800,000 in its custody to the receivers named by it.

This is the effect of the order made today by Judge Pritchard in the matter of the application of the commission that they be allowed to give bond to secure a supersedeas which should suspend the orders of the court pending an appeal to the higher court—no formal order having been signed until today. The court not only requires a bond of $250,000, in itself sufficient to secure all claims of complaints in the case, but imposes the condition that the commisison deposit all the collateral or securities with the court.

THEATERS

At the Grand.

MonteCristo." Tonight Mr. O'Neill will begin this afternoon at the Grand with his popular production of Dumas' masterpiece, "Monte Cristo." Aonight Mr. O'Neill will be seen in Sheridan Knowles' magnificent drama, "Virginius." Both plays give Mr. O'Neill and his excellent company grand opportunities, and both productions will be staged in the same superb manner which has always characterized Mr. O'Neill's productions in Atlanta.

When James O'Neill was first boked in Atlanta the management had in mind to give only one performance of "Virginius" tonight, but numerous requests for "Monte Cristo" have found their way to the desk of the local manager and after considerable correspondence Mr. O'Neill was finally induced to present "Monte Cristo" at a special matinee this afternoon.

The advance sale for both the matinee and night performances is splendid and there is abundant reason to anticipate two of the largest and most brilliant audiences of the season for Mr. O'Neill's engagement.

Happyland.

De Wolf Hopper is provided with unlimited opportunities for the display of his abilities in the famous comic opera "Happyland," in which he has never been funnier in all his career. Being supported by an exceptionally clever company, among whom might be mentioned dainty little Marguerite Clark, perhaps the most charming and winsome figure on the light opera stage, the full value of the many complications and bright dialogue are brought out. The Messrs. Shubert have supplied a production that leaves nothing to be desired, so it is quite safe to expect many things of "Happyland" when it visits the Grand Friday and Saturday for three performances.

Stock Company.

Few better plays have been seen in recent years than "Leah Kleschna," which will be presented at the Grand for the entire week beginning Monday next. "Leah Kleschna" had its premiere at one of New York's leading theaters last season and was spoken of unanimously by the critics as one of the strongest dramatic productions seen in New York in recent years. Mr. Jake Wells and Mr. R. L. Griffen will present this attraction with a carefully selected cast of metropolitan players.

At the Orpheum.

A unique stunt and one that cannot be other than screamingly funny will be introduced Friday night in conection with the amateur end of the performance—the amateur carnival which is a regular feature at the Orpheum every Friday night. The entire bill of professionals, including the bicycle riders, Curtis and Palmer; Catherine Hayes and Sabel Johnson, the funny German of the aggregation of pantomime artists and acrobats; Emil Subers, the monologuist, will be seen and heard in a special skit which has been prepared for them. The entire outfit will be as one company in one act. Of course the regular bill will be offered and the carnival of real amateurs will also be held.

At the Bijou.

Ottie Williams in "My Tomboy Girl" is drawing capacity audiences this week to the Bijou and it is safe to say that few stars that visit the Bijou may boast of so strong and popular a following. "My Tomboy Girl" is a melange of musical comedy and melodrama, and judging from the cordial reception given Miss Williams and her company this week at the Bijou patrons of this house are decidedly partial to this class of entertainment. The usual Thursday matinee will be given this afternoon and the regular night performance.

Cigarette Smokers

Can be Cured—This Man Smoked Cigarettes For Ten Years.

Could Not Sleep Without Smoking During the Night, and as a Result Never Felt Like Getting Up in the Morning.

I feel it my duty to let the unfortunate "Cigarette Fiend" know that there is a cure for the cigarette habit, no matter how long or to what extent one has been using these life-destroying agents of the devil. In my case I had been smoking cigarettes since I was 10 years old. The desire for cigarettes was such that my first thought on arising in the morning and my last thought at night before retiring was "a cigarette," and finally I got so I would wake during the night and inhale the smoke from a cigarette before I could again go to sleep. As a result of the constant use of cigarettes during the night I would not feel like getting up in the morning, feeling so tired that I had neither energy to arise nor appetite at breakfast time, consequently I would take my breakfast to my place of business and maybe eat it later on. In fact, I had little appetite at any time, and weighed only 119 pounds, whereas, since taking your treatment, I now weigh 140 pounds.

I want to tell all cigarette users that if they will take a course of your Specially Prepared Home Treatment in accordance with directions that accompany each course of treatment, that they will not only get rid of all desire or necessity for cigarettes, but their general health will be greatly improved.

Yours truly,

LOOKOUT INN SUFFERED $10.000 LOSS FROM FIRE

The Fire Burned Fiercely for Two Hours, Was Put Out by Employees.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 8.—Fire was discovered in Lookout Inn, on top of Lookout mountain, just after noon today and burned fiercely for two hours, entailing a loss of between $8,000 and $10,000. The fire had gained great headway when discovered, but the fire apparatus of the hotel was quickly called into action, and employees of the hotel and volunteers handled it most vigorously. A large space of the south walls was cut away with axes to prevent spread of the flames.

The fire was started from a charcoal stove being used by tinners at work on the roof.

SHOW OF FORCE AGAINST CASTRO

Plans for a Demonstration in Venezuelan Waters.

GENERAL STAFF AT WORK

This Military and Naval Demonstration Will Be Made as Soon as Congress Authorizes Roosevelt to Act.

Washington, April 8.—Plans are being elaborated in detail for the mobilization of a joint military and naval force in Venezuelan waters as soon as possible after President Roosevelt obtains congressional sanction to resort to force against Castro.

It may not be deemed necessary by the administration to make this martial demonstration, but the war and navy departments are both mapping out a tentative military movement.

The whole military situation is now under consideration by the general staff of the army, and the general board of the navy by a direct order from the president upon Secretary Root's recommendation for preparedness to back up eventualities with a show of arms.

President Roosevelt cannot constitutionally declare war against Venezuela. Legislative authority would be required for such a campaign, and the present preparation of plans, it is understood, will be merely in accord with the policy of mapping out campaigns for possible emergencies.

Directions given in the present instance are, however, the most explicit made since the army and navy was ordered to prepare for participation in the international relief column against Peking during the Boxer troubles. They are being guarded closely, and transmitted verbally from bureau to bureau.

USED TOMAHAWK TO TAKE VESSEL

Remarkable Piracy and Murder in South Seas.

MADE TO LEAP OVERBOARD

With Tomahawk, the Mutiners Forced Officers to Jump Into the Sea—The Vessel Was Finally Wrecked and Mutiners Captured.

Victoria, B. C., April 8.—News was brought by the steamship Marama, which arrived last night, of a remarkable piracy and murder in the South seas. The captain and mate of a Callao schooner were attacked with a tomahawk and forced to jump overboard by Joseph Mortimer, a Belgian; J. Taylor, of Manchester, and G. Jackson, of London, who then stole the schooner, the Neuvre Tigre of Callao, and started for Australia. The vessel was wrecked in the Gilbert islands, where she was found by Captain Marshall, of the trading schooner Laurel, who reported the piracy and murder to the authorities at Suva, where the men were made prisoners. Jackson later confessed. He said:

"The schooner sailed under the Italian flag, being owned by the master and mate, both of whom were forced to jump overboard.

"The schooner sailed out of Callao early in November, last, having on board a crew of five, the captain and mate, the cook (a Belgian), Joseph Mortimer and myself as cabin boy, and J. Taylor.

"The vessel had only got about 14 miles off the coast the first day from Callao, when the cook made an attack on the mate and captain. He rushed at the mate first and struck him on the head with a tomahawk. He was felled by the blow, but quickly recovered himself and took to the rigging. The captain, hearing the scuffle, came out of the cabin, and he was immediately felled by a blow.

"Immediately afterwards the cook got his gun and forced the first mate, then the skipper, to jump overboard. The mate sank, but the skipper struck out for the shore, distant 14 miles, and Jackson threw him a plank. The cook threatened Jackson, who agreed to assist in working the schooner. The cargo was jettisoned and they started for Australia. The vessel finally went ashore in the Gilbert group."

The prisoners may be sent to Callao for trial.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the appoval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

SIXTH DISTRICT SCHOOL OPENS

Highly Interesting Exercises Were Witnessed by a Large Audience.

Barnesville, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The opening of the Sixth District Agricultural college was marked with highly interesting exercises which were witnessed by a large and enthusiastic audience composed of people of this community and from all over the district. The exercises were held in the auditorium of the main building on the college grounds. The board of trustees is composed of the following: Hon. John T. Williams, of Jones county, chairman; Hon. J. J. Flynt, of Griffin; Hon. O. M. Duke, of Flovilla; Hon. G. C. McKinley, of Milledgeville; Hon. T. R. Talmadge, of Forsyth; Hon. Cornelle Marchman, of The Rock; Hon. Lawrence Duffy, of McDonough; Hon. Sam Boykin, of Fayette county; Hon. T. B. Wts of Macon.

The exercises were opened with music by the Gordon Institute cadet band, followed with a song, "America," by the audienee and prayer by Rev. O. L. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city. Rev. J. O. Grogan, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, made the address of welcome.

President Thos. G. Scott made an address on the "Need of Agricultural Education." He made a fine talk on this subject and presented it in a forceful manner.

A historical sketch of the school and a statement of the financial condition of the college was made by Mr. L. A. McCray, treasurer. He told of the fight the people of Barnesville made to get the school and of their subsequent interest in and efforts for it. He stated that all the indebtedness had been paid except the amount for which the city of Barnesville had just voted a bond issue of $16,000. The total cost of the building and grounds is about $80,000, and there are none handsomer in the state.

Rev. Albert W. Grigg made a very interesting talk appropriate to the occasion and was followed by Col. Judson M. Strickland, of Griffin, who delivered an address presenting a flag and Bible on the part of the Barnesville Lodge of the Jr. O. U. A. M.

Hon. J. J. Flynt, of Griffin, accepted in a well chosen speech the flag and Bible for the trustees. Following these exercises occurred the announcements and enrollment of pupils. The attendance on the opening day was very gratifying to the faculty and trustees.

The success of the opening exercises was in a large measure due to the efforts of Prof. E. W. Childs, who has been acting principal, and has labored faithfully for the good of the school.

The Barnesville Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., attended the exercises in a body, as did the students of Gordon Institute.

WOMEN STORM PUBLIC SCHOOL

Mothers Excited by Story That Building Was Marked by Black Hand.

Newark, N. J., April 8.—A rumor that a big public school in the Italian section was blown up by Black Hand blackmailers as an act of revenge for failure of parents of pupils to pay tribute resulted in a panic today in which two children were injured. It became necessary to close the school for the day before the trouble was ended.

The school was in session when a great throng of excited women, shouting and gesticulating, gathered in front of the closed gates. They demanded that their children be sent from the building at once and threatened to break into the building if that was not done. The principal telephoned for police assistance but before help arrived the women had broken down the gates and forced their way into the building.

The excited mothers rushed into the building and made their way upstairs, screaming and calling for their children by name, so exciting the pupils that they got entirely beyond the control of the teachers and ran from their class rooms into the halls. In the wild scramble of mothers and children down the stairs many of the little ones were thrown down and trampled on, and two were seriously injured. When the police arrived order was quickly restored and the building was cleared and closed for the day. The police say there is no basis whatever for reports that threats to blow up the school had been made.

HAD DUEL AS HOUSE BURNED.

Nashville Man Shot by Policeman; Bystander Also Hit by Bullet.

Nashville, Tenn., April 8.—As the result of a sensational pistol duel last night on West End avenue, this city, between Officer Van Toen and Edwin E. Sweeney, a well-known carriage dealer, the latter lies at the city hospital suffering from a serious wound, and E. H. Dudley, of the Gray & Dudley Hardware Company, who was accidentally hit by a bullet intended for Officer Van Toen, is suffering from a scalp wound.

When the shooting occurred a residence belonging to Mrs. Sweeney was on fire, and the officer was endeavoring to arrest Sweeney because of reports that had been circulated. Sweeney opened fire on the patrolman and Officer Van Toen returned the fire, hitting Sweeney with the first shot. The bullet struck Sweeney just below the shoulder blade, and ranging upward came out in his neck.

It is said that Sweeney has repeatedly threatened to fire his house and also to kill William Nelson and Mrs. Nelson, his wife's sister. Sweeney's domestic relations have been most unpleasant. All parties are prominent.

WOMEN TALK OF MISSIONS.

Woman's Missionary Society of Atlanta Presbytery at Newnan.

Newnan, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The Woman's Missionary society of the Atlanta Presbytery met here today and will be in session through tomorrow. About one hundred delegates, besides the visiting ministers, are present.

Dr. Morris, of Atlanta, delivered an address this evening. Mr. P. F. Cuttins entertained for all delegates and visiting ministers this afternoon from 5 to 6.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING IS HELD BY BANKERS

Over Forty South Georgia Bankers Gathered in Americus Yesterday.

Albany, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—One of the most successful of the district meetings of the Georgia Bankers' Association was that of District No. 4, completing almost the entire western portion of the state, held in Albany today. About fifty prominent bankers of the district are attending.

The meeting at noon for business was preceded by a reception complimentary to the visitors at the six banking houses of the city, where the officers of these institutions were "at home." The meeting was called to order a few minutes after noon in the assembly room of the Elks' Home, President C. M. Cowell, of Americus, presiding.

The address of welcome was delivered by Joseph S. Davis, president of the Albany Trust Company, and of the Georgia Bankers' Association. Response was made by Z. H. Clark, of Moultrie, and immediately afterward routine business was taken up. Then followed a number of interesting addresses.

One of the best talks of the afternoon was delivered by A. P. Coles, a former Alabaman, now cashier of the Central Banking and Trust Corporation of Atlanta, Roland Ellis, of Macon, talked on "Confidence," and five-minute talks were made by the following bankers: A. W. Hale, Columbus; W. C. Lanier, West Point; R. L. Saville, Dawson, and John D. Walker, Sparta.

This evening the visiting bankers are being entertained at a brilliant reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Davis.

THERE WERE NO BLOWS.

Story of Fight at House Committee Meeting Is Denied.

Washington, April 8.—Emphatic denial was given on the floor of the house today to the statement appearing in the press today regarding an alleged episode occurring yesterday in the committee on elections of president, vice president and members of congress. Rising to a question of personal privilege, Mr. Gaines, of West Virginia, chairman of the committee, declared that no efforts of the members were made to do each other bodily harm.

"No such thing occurred," he said, "and nothing like it. There were no blows at all; there were none aimed, none dodged, and the situation did not even approach a personal difficulty in any sense whatever."

Mr. Hardiwck, of Georgia, a democratic member of the committee, confirmed Mr. Gaines' statement.

DISTRESS WARRANT TAKEN FOR ALLEGED EMBEZZLER

The Distress Orders Defendant Incarcerated Until Amount of Alleged Embezzlement is Paid.

Nashville, April 8.—A case of unusual interest by reason of the uniqueness has been brought about by the issuance of a distress warrant by the solicitor of the United States treasury for the arrest of Joseph W. Dollin, former surveyor of customs at the port of Nashville, who was indicted by the last federal grand jury on the charge of embezzlement of government funds.

The distress orders the arrest of the defendant and his incarceration until the payment of the amount of his alleged embezzlement, which amounts to something over $6,500. A case similar to this has probably not occurred in the past sixty-five years.

SOCIETY OF CINCINNATI.

Triennial Convention Held at Charleston—Mr. Jusserand Present.

Charleston, S. C., April 8.—The triennial convention of the General Society of the Cincinnati began here today. Winslow Warren, of Massachusetts, presided. All state societies were represented. The French ambassador, Mr. Jusserand, attended the banquet tonight given by the South Carolina Society of the Cincinnati to the visitors. He responded to the toast, "France."

It is understood, however, that two others, Messrs. Morris and Nash, have agreed to run. It is probable also that Hon. C. M. Candler will announce next week.

JOHNSON TALKS OF PRESIDENCY

Minnesota Governor Will Accept if Named by Democrats.

Chicago, April 8.—Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota, who is on his way to the battlefield of Shiloh, Tenn., where a monument is to be dedicated to the Minnesota soldiers killed in that battle, passed through the city today. He discussed the presidential question freely, saying:

"I am a candidate for the presidency in the sense that if I gain the nomination I shall accept it, and make every effort to be elected. I am not making any presidential campaign, and do not expect to seek instructed delegates. I consider the ambition to be president one of the most laudable aspirations which any man can entertain.

"Any insinuations or assertions," said Governor ohnson, "that my candidacy is being advised by James J. Hill and his interests is absolutely false. I have fought him several times, and have never received a word of encouragement from him or any similar source."

Governor Johnson said that he did not care to discuss William J. Bryan or any differences in policy between himself and Mr. Bryan.

"I have the highest regard for Mr. Bryan as a man," said Governor Johnson, "and I admire his ability and his honesty. We are friends, so far as I know. My position is just this: If the members of the democratic party feel that I would stand more chance of election than would Mr. Bryan or any other man, I will be glad to make the campaign.

If I am considered the most available man, there will be no lack of appreciation on my part for the honor conferred on me. It all depends, in my judgment, on the platform, and a vigorous campaign. As I view it, the democratic party has at least an even chance to win this year."

DOUBLE MURDER WAS CHARGED

Son Accused His Father of Slaying Wife and Daughter.

New Orleans, La., April 8.—According to a letter received today by the New Orleans police, a double murder committed on the river below New Orleans has been covered up by the murky waters of the Mississippi for two years and has only been brought to life by the confession of a 12-year-old boy.

The letter was written by George Edwards to his uncle at Marksville, La. The uncle immediately sent the letter to the New Orleans police. According to the letter, the boy, with several young brothers, is now at a New Orleans orphans' home. He says that in June, 1906, his father, Lucien Edwards, came aboard the shanty boat on which his family were living and when taken to task by his wife for being drunk, shot and killed her with a rifle. When the eldest daughter remonstrated with her father, she, too, was killed. Both bodies were then weighted down with stones and thrown into the river.

RIOT CAUSED BY RAIL RATES

People of Brazil Resent Alleged Extortion by Firing Cars.

Rio Jaeniro, April 8.—Serious rioting broke out yesterday in the city of Campos. The troops were sent in today to restore order. It seems that the Leopoldina railroad has maintained exorbitant rates on freight in and out of Campos. This aroused the indignation of the people, and last evening they descended upon the railroad property and set fire to the two stations, thirty cars and several warehouses. When this had been acomplished they advanced to the railroad bridge over the Parahiba river, which they completely destroyed.

INTERESTING MEETINGS AT ATLANTA CHURCHES

At the Baptist Tabernacle there is a real revival in progress. Rev. J. L. White, D. D., of Greensboro, N. C., is preaching every night this week. The meeting has been in progress one week, and about one hundred and twenty-five professions have already been made. About twenty have joined the church.

Thursday evening a novel program is arranged. Evangelist White will speak to the young women only from 7 to 8 o'clock. A luncheon will be served by the Ladies' Aid Society from 6 to 7 for all young women who care to come direct to the Tabernacle to hear this address before going home. At 8 o'clock Dr. White will preach to the whole congregation in the auditorium.

Everybody is cordially invited to any and all these services, except the meeting for young women on Thursday evening. This meeting is limited strictly to unmarried women.

One of the most interesting series of protracted services of the spring is now in progress at the Park Street Methodist church, corner Park avenue and Lee street. At 7:45 o'clock each evening sermons upon subjects of interest are preached by Rev. M. L. Troutman, pastor of the church, and one of the most prominent divines in the state. The services will continue through the present and ensuing week.

At the McDonald Baptist church, W. Fair and Walnut streets, large crowds continue to come to hear Rev. J. T. Edmundson and much interest is nightly manifested. A great many asking for prayer and a number are joining the noon and at 7:45 every evening.

church at each meeting. The splendid music and good singing, led by Mr. Cope, is attractive.

Among those who have lectured at the Atlanta Bible school within the last few days are: Rev. Thomas Elgar, of London and New York, who has spent some years visiting the prisons of this country: Rev. F. C. Gilbert, of Boston, a converted Jew, who is devoting his time mainly to missionary work among his own race. On the evening of Thursday, the 9th instant, at 7:30, Rev. F. A. Holtzhausen, a native of Wittenberg, Germany, which was the home of Martin Luther, will lecture on the "Life, Character and Work of Martin Luther." As Martin Luther is one of the most picturesque and inspiring characters of history, and Mr. Holtzhausen has studied this subject deeply, an unusually interesting address is expected.

Great congregations are attending the revival meetings at the Second Baptist church, where George W. Truett, of Texas, is preaching. His theme last night was personal work. "And Andrew brought his brother Simon to Jesus." The response in the great congregation to the appeal of the preacher was manifested when he asked for lawyers, judges, doctors, business men who would seek during these meetings to bring some friend to Christ to stand up. Hundreds of people stood and the congregation was thus impressively dismissed. The indications are that before Saturday it will be impossible to seat the people in the Second Baptist church seeking to hear him. He preaches at 3:30 every afternoon and at 7:45 every evening.

MAY HOLD UP SCHOOL FUND.

Appropriation for New School May Be Side-Tracked.

When the aldermanic board meets this afternoon it is expected that if the appropriation, recently passed by the finance committee and the general council, of $43,000 for the new fifth ward school comes up for action, it will be held up for two weeks.

Alderman H. M. Beutell, alderman from that ward pushing the appropriation, called upon Mayor Joyner yesterday and informed him that Alderman Curtis had given him notice that he would ask for a reconsideration on the appropriation, which would hold the matter up for two weeks.

It is understood that Alderman Curtis, with Alderman Pittman, is in favor of fire-proof schools in the future and that the fund for this school must wait until this important point is decided. The plans for the school have been drawn by the architect and the contract for its erection all but let. The school is to be located at the corner of Plum, Luckie and East Pine streets. Other than this there is very little beside routine business which is to be presented to the board.

The deceased removed to Atlanta about a year ago from Elkton, Ky., in the hope of regaining his health. He was well known in business circles, and had made many friends in the course of his short residence in Atlanta.

ASQUITH KISSES HAND OF THE KING

Thus Signalizing His Acceptance of the Premiership.

CHANGES IN THE CABINET

Lord Loreburn Will Retire as Lord High Chancellor and Haldane Will Succeed — Winston Churchill Will Probably Go to War Office.

London, April 8.—The vacancy in the office of prime minister of Great Britain caused by the resignation last Sunday of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, on account of ill health, was filled this morning at Biarritz, France, during the audience time there between King Edward and Herbert H. Asquith, who had been summoned from London. Mr. Asquith first tendered to his majesty his resignation as chancellor of the exchequer, and immediately thereafter he kissed the hand of the king on his appointment to the post of prime minister and first lord of the treasury.

It is officially announced that King Edward will leave Biarritz April 15 in order to hold a privy council in London on the 16th. The new ministers probably will have their first audience of the king on this occasion, as it is understood that Mr. Asquith was able to submit a list of his main appointments to his majesty during the audience of this morning. Mr. Asquith is expected in London tomorrow, when he will complete his ministry.

Changes in Cabinet.

The latest information in well-informed circles points to the strong possibility of the retirement of Lord Loreburn, lord high chancellor, who it is understood does not stand very high in the estimation of Mr. Asquith, and the appointment of R. B. Haldane, secretary of state for war, to this post with the peerage attachment. It is known that Mr. Haldane is ready to leave the war offices. He would have liked to become chancellor of the exchequer, but it is apparent that David Lloyd-George, president of the board of trade, has the keys to that office in his pocket. In the event of Mr. Haldane going to the upper house, Winston Churchill, under secretary of the colonial offices, will most likely get the war offices, which would be much more congenial to him than the board of trade.

Asquith Is Congratulated.

Herbert H. Asquith is receiving congratulations on his appointment as premier. He had several audiences during the course of the day with the king, lunching and dining with his majesty. It is understood that some details as to the personnel of the cabinet remained to be settled in London.

Mr. Asquith declined today to divulge anything with regard to the new cabinet. He will start for home at noon tomorrow after another audience with the king in the morning. He will spend the night in Paris and will reach London on Friday evening.

SMITH CLUB FORMED.

Meeting Held at Thomasville to Perfect Organization.

Thomasville, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—A meeting was called for last night to organize a Hoke Smith club in Thomasville at the court house. Five men reported. Dr. T. M. McIntosh, the last campaign president, was reelected. Campaigners from the country are to be selected for the present administration.

Election Held at Oxford.

Oxford, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—A municipal election in which village improvement, especially in the direction of better streets, was the vital issue, were held here Tuesday. The campaign was rather quiet, excepting the election of city marshal, there being five candidates for this office. The choice of the cemetery, tree and street committees played an important part in the race. Following are the officials chosen: Mayor, Dr. E. K. Turner; mayor pro tem., Professor E. H. Johnson; clerk, J. Z. Johnson; marshal, R. M. Dial.

CASTRO STRIKES AT HIS FRIEND

So Washington Regards Conduct of Venezuelan President.

AMAZEMENT IS EXPRESSED

Washington, April 8.—Administration officials today expressed amazement over the statements in President Castro's official organ, El Constitucional, having as their basis the Tacoma mail pouch opening incident. The editorial received the closest attention. Mingled with the feeling of amazement over the sentiments of President Castro, is one of regret and mystification over the whole course Venezuela has pursued in dealing with the United States.

"The United States has been a good friend to Venezuela," said a high official of the state department. "Twice within the last fifteen years we have gone to Venezuela's aid when that country needed assistance."

For this reason he cannot understand why she has acted as she has. During President Cleveland's second term, when Great Britain was threatening to encroach on Venezuela's territory, he sent a message to congress which had the result of referring the question to The Hague for impartial determination. Again several years years later, when the allied powers were threatening a blockade on Venezuelan ports to compel payment of her foreign obligations, the United States, through Minister Bowen, stepped in and averted such a step. Again the question was referred to The Hague.

The navy department today received a dispatch from Commander John Hood, of the cruiser Tacoma, containing details touching the opening of the mail carried by that vessel at the La Guiara postoffice. It agrees substantially with the published statements, and the officials are satisfied the opening was inadvertent.

All the correspondence on the Venezuelan question is now before congress.

If you want a few shares of this stock a subscription blank will be furnished if you will phone, write or call for same within the next few days. The present book value of the stock is $140 per share, but the new stock is being put out on a basis of $135 per share, payable in ten equal monthly installments with the first payment due June 1st.

ANOTHER GAG PUT ON DEMOCRATS

Republicans Tighten Rules to Stop the Filibuster.

STORMY SESSION OF HOUSE

All Day the Democrats and Republicans Fought Over the New Gag Rule, but the Former Were Finally Beaten at Every Point.

Washington, April 8.—Today's session of the house will go down as one of the stormiest in its history. The sum total of the day's proceedings was the adoption of several additional rules to further check the democratic filibuster and the passage of the two resolutions introduced by Speaker Cannon calling on the department of justice and the department of commerce and labor for certain information regarding the so-called paper trust.

There were nine roll calls during the day, five of them on the new rules. The democrats exhausted their resources before they were made to feel that the republicans by sheer force of numbers had them beaten at every point.

The debate brought all the leaders of the house to the front. The democrats were again charged with making the special rules necessary by reason of their filibuster, while the democrats reasserted that they at last were causing the majority to enact legislation.

The new rule passed enables the speaker to declare a recess at 5 o'clock every day for the remainder of the week without a roll call. Notwithstanding the rigid rules already in force, the democrats forced five roll calls on this rule.

Republicans Fear Record.

The debate was participated in by Messrs. De Armond and Williams, on the democratic side, and Messrs. Sherman and Dalzell on behalf of the republicans.

Beginning the controversy, Mr. De Armond said that evidently it had become offensive to the republicans to have a roll call, notwithstanding the requirements of the constitution. He attributed their reluctance to a desire not to be forced on record. He admitted that the adoption of the rule would demonstrate that the republicans could pass any bill they desired to pass, but urged that it would also place squarely upon them the responsibility for all failure to legislate.

Mr. Sherman responded that the republicans were entirely willing to assume complete responsibility.

"The republican party," he said, "has been ready to accept full responsibility when it has been in power, which is in striking contrast to the democratic party, which, even when it is in power, has lacked the courage to carry out its declared policies."

Mr. Williams claimed credit for forcing the republican majority to vote on many important measures. He made reply to Mr. Dalzell's recent speech which had been calculated, he said, to cause him to grow angry, but he did not propose to lose his temper because the republican leaders did not want him and the president to legislate.

"But," he said, "we will legislate; we shall get a free wood pulp bill, but we won't get a campaign fund publicity bill because of the near approach of the elections when you want your contributions."

Dalzell Denounces.

Mr. Dalzell denounced the filibuster as "not only unseemly, but unjustifiable and indefensible." He declared no limitation had been put upon debate, and asserted that business is farther advanced now than at the same period in the last congress.

As if to divest the democrats of every vestige of any powers left to them, Mr. Dalzell subsequently reported another rule, which the republicans put through by sheer force of numbers. The rule provides that hereafter a general appropriation bill that had been considered and amended in the committee of the whole shall be put on its passage under suspension of the rules, and that a majority and not a two-thirds vote shall carry the bill through. The object of the rule is to prevent the democrats securing roll calls on motions for separate votes on amendments.

WILLIAMS IS ARRESTED BY SECRET SERVICE MAN

Former Central of Georgia Agent Will Face Charge of Embezzlement.

Telegrams received in Atlanta yesterday from Fort Pierce, Florida, announce the arrest in that city yesterday of C. M. Williams, a few years ago known throughout the northern section of the state. For a long time Williams was depot ticket and freight agent for the Central of Georgia railway at Lindale. He was of pleasant address, and when his absence from his post of duty brought out charges that he had gone away because he was short in his accounts there were few to accept the declarations as truthful. Williams had many friends who were disappointed when he failed to come back. Even when secret service men attached to the American Surety Company of New York, the bonding company which became his sponsers among his lifelong friends by underwriting any obligation he might bring to the company, appeared upon the scene trying to locate him there were friends of olden days who refused to credit the statement that he was a fugitive from justice.

One of the oldest and best men in the service of the company had been designated to investigate. Though few secret service men in the country have more friends than he sent after Williams, no one recognized him when he appeared upon the field. The secret service worker, however, got a clew to his man, locating him in Florida, and starting after him. Yesterday telegrams came to Atlanta saying that "Former Agent Williams, of the Central of Georgia railroad at Lindale, Ga., charged with embezzlement, had been captured in Fort Pierce by a special agent of the American Surety Company of New York," and that the prisoner had waived requisition and would come along with the special officer representing the surety company.

A wire reaching Atlanta last night indicated that Williams was then en route to Georgia, accompanied by the special officer of the American Surety Company.

JOE BROWN CLUB ORGANIZED.

Club Has Membership of 500 at Waycross Alone.

Waycross, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The Ware County Joe Brown Club was organized last night with the election of Carman Sweat as president and Captain R. B. Ballard as secretary. The club has a membership of more than 500 citizens of Waycross alone, no effort having yet been made to secure members from the country precincts. The labor organizations alone will present an almost solid front of at least 600 votes for Mr. Brown.

In Charlton, an adjoining county to Ware, Hoke Smith two years ago received only 17 votes. Bets have been recorded at Folkston within the past few days that he will not receive one tally in the county on June 4.

S.S.S. RIDS THE SYSTEM OF CATARRH

Even in its early stages Catarrh is a most distressing ailment, caused by the stuffy feeling in the head, ringing noises in the ears, watery eyes, difficult breathing, continual "hawking and spitting," etc., but when the blood becomes thoroughly saturated with the impurities which produce the disease it becomes a serious and often dangerous disorder. Then the bronchial tubes are attacked, the bladder and kidneys diseased, and often the lungs become affected by the constant passage of impure blood through them and Catarrh terminates in Consumption. The impurities and poisons in the blood which produce Catarrh can never be removed through the use of sprays, inhalations, washes, etc. Such treatment cannot reach the real cause, and their use alone should never be depended on to cure the disease. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, in the circulation, and removes every trace of the impurity that is causing the trouble. Then as rich, purified blood is carried to all parts of the system the symptoms gradually leave, the health is improved, and S. S. S. makes a permanent cure of the trouble. Special book on Catarrh and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Little Rhode Island seems to think Taft is too heavy for the light lid there.

These banquets given to Taft seem to indicate that he stands in with the meat trust.

Canada doesn't need Emma Goldman. It gets even by sending her back again.

Illinois never thought it worth while to pray for rain until the dry weather was upon it.

When they cease fighting the navy at home, it will be time for war talk with another country.

And in Illinois, too, they are singing in twenty counties, "Where Is My Wandering Bar Tonight?"

And are you really anxious for an earthquake to shake off that drowsy, dreamy spring-fever feeling?

In that dark Philadelphia convention Foraker gave the Black Hand to Taft as a souvenir from Ohio.

Speaker Cannon has perpetrated another joke. But nothing can equal the one he got off on the tariff.

Only six speeches a week from a fat presidential candidate who wants a fat thing of it for four years?

The political pot is not simmering." It has "bi'led over," and the splashing is unpleasantly warm on all sides.

Castro strikes at Roosevelt. He is compelled to sneeze in meeting when the latter opens a can of insect powder.

And still it is hard to believe that beef trust prices go "sky-high." They'll never be able to break in there.

Governor Hughes announces that he has not withdrawn from the race; he is only viewing it from a retired position.

Admiral Evans would not be so loud in praise of "hot mud" if he could get somebody to nominate him for president.

Any report of campaign contributions would be too loud for the republicans—at present. The noiseless campaign gun's the thing.

The tariff is gaining considerable reputation going around as the "raggedy man," but they won't even let it stay overnight in the barn.

With Senator Hale saying that "the Philippines are a pestilence," it will be harder than ever to browbeat any nation into taking them off our hands.

That book agent who kept a sheriff's posse at bay should have compromised by letting them take the "Lives" of some of the national candidates.

A Texas woman elected to a school board. The red-headed widows of Houston would not have made such a compromise. Nothing less than the mayoralty would have satisfied them.

A great American magazine has changed hands. Probably the new proprietors will break into the vaults haunted by the ghosts of ancient authors and resurrect tons of forgotten manuscripts.

Job may have been patient, but he never had to take down a stovepipe, and move a crazy piano, and beat an ancient carpet while a fellow with a can of bait and a fishing rod leaned over the fence and whispered: "The fish are biting, old man!"

A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

The Atlanta chamber of commerce has taken vigorous hold of the matter of amending Georgia's garnishment laws, operations of which as at present constituted have succeeded in driving hundreds of thousands of dollars of railroad deposits from Georgia banks to those of other states.

A preliminary report suggesting material amendment of the present laws has been considered and adopted, and the suggestions contained therein will be placed before the legislature at its coming summer session.

In many respects this report appears to meet the situation. Its enactment into law would prevent litigants from other states coming into Georgia and taking advantage of our laws, a thing which no other state in the union would tolerate. It will also deter Georgia litigants from rashly tying up corporation funds or equipments, without solid foundation beneath their cause.

But why should there be any necessity for garnishment proceedings at all in cases where the defendant in the suit is so apparently amply able to meet any judgment that can be brought against him?

It may be the enactment by the legislature of the suggestions contained in the committee's report will fully meet the situation, and effectually prevent any undue harassing of corporations by the "razor backs" and their clients. But it is difficult to see, for instance, why there should be any necessity whatever for tying up the funds of a railroad or other corporation which has abundant property to answer every judgment of the courts which may be brought against it.

After all, what should be done is to so amend the law that the railroad bank deposits will return to Georgia.

The evil in the present law is nowhere denied; there is unanimous agreement that it must be remedied. Even the chairman of the railroad commission admits it, and says the railroads are justified in carrying their money out of Georgia.

There will not, therefore, be any complaint as to the detailed method of applying the remedy, so long as it is made effective.

CAPITALIZING WAR SCARES.

Whether the pending naval inquiry does or does not develop any well authenticated scandalous conduct—and there has been enough already—it satisfies us of one thing: There has been too much useless and extravagant waste of public funds in the details of navy building.

We need a navy, a good and reasonable navy, such as we have, comprising a sufficient number of battleships, cruisers and gunboats to perform the necessary functions of naval service in time of peace, as well as to be prepared for any unforeseen emergency.

But this building of fleets of torpedo boats and submarines year after year, whose launching is but the beginning of a comparatively brief voyage to the scrap heap, strikes us as the height of naval folly.

Millions of dollars are tied up in craft that are useless except in actual naval conflict. Truly, it's a good thing for the builders.

They have grown rich capitalizing war scares!

Some rowdies on the Pacific coast attack some Japanese. Immediately there are predictions of war with Japan. Yellow newspapers are easy and willing vehicles for the war scare propaganda. Result: Orders to the builders for a score of new torpedo boats and a dozen or so submarines.

If the investigators could get at the true source of the war talk, we doubt not they would discover that stocks and bonds had been issued upon it.

From the manner in which the government has gone into the construction, or contracting for construction, of this class of craft, one would imagine the war crater was already in subterranean action.

But there is no war cloud on our horizon, nor is there likely to be. The chances are the present set of torpedo boats and submarines, and their successors, will have turned to junk before we are even threatened.

Of course, nobody is going to deny the fact that war is a possibility, though extremely improbable; but the history of wars shows that it usually takes six months to a year to get up to the shooting point, even after the chip is knocked off the other fellow's shoulder. In that time, with all our resources, we could float torpedo boats and submarines enough to satisfy the most extravagant naval enthusiast.

But here we are tying up millions of public funds in useless machines which improvements quickly make obsolete, and then they are sold for junk.

It's about time to call a halt.

Congress is talking about taking in its financial sails; here is a good place to begin.

Stop the squandering and put the navy on a sensible business basis!

FORWARD STEP OF NEW YORK METHODISTS.

The Methodist conference of New York state has assumed an attitude of liberality with reference to the matter of church discipline and secular amusements which, we believe, is likely to exert a far-reaching and a salutary effect on the spreading and the fortification of genuine religion throughout the United States.

With no debate whatsoever and with only seven dissenting votes, the delegates passed a resolution recommending that the general conference, which has jurisdiction over this denomination throughout the northern states, eliminate that clause in the church discipline which puts a ban upon theater-going, card playing, dancing and similar diversions, removing the churchly interdict against such amusements and leaving them entirely to the adjudication of the conscience of the individual.

An ecclesiastical ban, to be effective, must appeal to the intellect no less than to the sense of spiritual obligation and responsibility. In dealing with evil that is unmixed and unqualified, the churches can, and must, be dogmatic. There is no alternative, if they would fulfill their function.

With subjects, however, that concern themselves almost wholly with individual temperament and judgment, that have innocently amused, uplifted and refreshed for labor millions of people throughout history, the verdict must, of common sense and necessity, rest with the individual conscience. In the last analysis, that ever-present monitor is, at any rate, the deciding factor. If it whispers, compellingly, to the young man or woman that theater-going is sinful and destructive of the soul, that dancing, in the individual instance, is the parent of harm and actual transgression, there can be little room for doubt that these amusements will be omitted, ban or no ban.

If, on the contrary, the man or woman, thirsting for legitimate and innocent recreation, finds himself or herself threatened with religious ostracism if they indulge in the amusements common to their friends, equally innocent with themselves, how long will it take to make at least some of those particular men or women hypocrites? How long will it take some of them to become, unconvinced, sinners in secret? How long will it take them, conscious of a restraint that does not appeal to their conscience or intelligence, to become slack in their religious loyalty; even to desert to some other church allowing more individual latitude?

The same reasoning applies, essentially, to persons of all ages, with the difference that as people grow older their sense of discrimination and perception grows stronger, their consciences more mandatory.

We fear that, in the end, such a proscriptive policy can only damage the church, closing its doors to and withholding its influence from thousands who resent an unreasonable invasion of their personal liberty, a virtual indictment of their innate innocence.

We do not plead that the bars should be, unqualifiedly, let down. License is worse than latitude. We do plead for a liberal, human religious sentiment that adjusts itself to one of the greatest weaknesses in the religious fabric today—dogmatic intolerance.

A VETERAN IN A GOOD CAUSE.

Elsewhere The Constitution publishes a letter from the Rev. Crawford W. Jackson concerning the work and the needs of the Rev. A. J. Hughes, one of the most unique and devoted advocates of temperance and prohibition in the southern states.

Mr. Jackson shows that Mr. Hughes was a pioneer in one of the causes that, whatever may be the differing views of partisans, is today of foremost interest in Georgia and the south. In this mission he has displayed initiative, energy and the spirit that does not stint time and labor in the prosecution of a worthy end.

An effort is now on foot to purchase for him a home, where he may spend in peace and freedom from worry the remaining days of a life given over to humanity.

The appeal is a most deserving one, and will doubtless enlist the interest of thousands throughout the state.

A Philosopher's Notes.

At the next campmeeting we are going to "round up" the saints, and see if we can't convert some of them.

We have been trying to pray off hard times, but they are so tough, our prayers don't seem to make any impression on them.

BOTH SIDES OF THE RACE AS VIEWED BY STATE PRESS

"Meaning of the Joe Brown Campaign."

(From The Atlanta Journal.)

Whatever doubt or speculation may have arisen in the minds of the public as to the real meaning of the Joe Brown candidacy will very soon be completely dispelled by the march of events and the uncovering of secret motives that are daily disclosing the true inwardness of this extraordinary announcement.

At first the real purpose of this movement was not apparent, but sufficient time has now elapsed to enable a very clear conception to be formed of the extent and purpose of this opposition to the administration, as well as the character of the organization promoting it.

It has, of course, been known from the first that there was something dark and secret about this candidacy. Judging by the character of the candidate and the influences at work to create an artificial sentiment in his favor, it was a justifiable assumption that there was something hidden—some ulterior, selfish motive, some political trick—in short, something dirty connected with this sudden and wholly manufactured opposition to the administration, the nature of which would soon be disclosed.

Those who knew the secret of the movement, as well as those who could only doubt and suspect, were compelled to await developments. Nobody accepted for a moment the ridiculous claim, so carefully disseminated, that this was a "spontaneous uprising" of the people to repudiate the governor, who had so recently been elected by the most overwhelming majority ever given any candidate for that exalted office. Nobody was simple enough, no credulity was blind enough, to swallow a statement so absurd. People do not rise spontaneously in behalf of established and admitted incapacity; therefore there was no spontaneous uprising in behalf of Joe Brown.

The waiting period has elapsed, the scheme is exposed and the conspirators are known, and now the people of Georgia would do well to observe closely what is their game. Here it is:

THE CONSPIRATORS PROPOSE TO REPEAL THE PROHIBITION LAW AND REESTABLISH THE OPEN BARROOM.

TO REINSTATE THE RAILROAD LOBBYIST AND THE HIRED POLITICIANS IN CONTROL OF THE POLITICAL AFFAIRS AND PARTY MACHINERY OF THE STATE.

TO DEFEAT THE MEASURE NOW BEFORE THE PEOPLE INTENDED TO DISFRANCHISE THE IGNORANT AND PURCHASABLE NEGRO VOTERS.

The Journal has it upon reliable and satisfactory information that there is a strong combination of the whisky interests, the railroad interests and the opposition to disfranchisement, having at its disposal a large corruption fund, to wage a desperate and determined war upon the administration for the accomplishment of this three-fold purpose.

"The Gubernatorial Memory."

(Tom Watson in The Jeffersonian.)

The human memory is, proverbially, a fickle jade; but we have seldom seen her play such shabby tricks with a great man as she has recently done with Governor Hoke Smith.

Ah, what a time he did have forgetting, remembering, denying and explaining, on that matter of the use of "light wines and beer." If anybody but a governor had got himself so mixed up on that subject an uncharitable and wicked world would have said that he had been indulging in too much of both the tipples which he recommended.

But the latest trick played upon the governor by his capricious memory, is on the matter of the early primary. His campaign, in 1906, resounded with denunciations of the political wire-workers who manipulated things in the interest of those who are in office by taking anap judgment, at an early primary. So late as November 17, 1907, Governor Smith was hotly denouncing this favorite maneuver of the wire-pulling ringsters.

The Jeffersonian, astonished at the governor's change upon this matter, as upon several others, made the point on him, and endeavored to find out why it was that the governor had joined the ringsters and was now favoring the early primary.

In his Waycross speech the governor (who seems to spend most of his time away from his office and post of duty) declared that he had never denounced a primary called so late as June.

It was the April primary that Hoke Smith, the candidate for office, objected to—not one on the 4th of June.

So?

Let us do Hoke Smith no injustice. Let us refer to the record and refresh our memories as to what he did say. Clearly, he himself has forgotten.

Turning to the speech he made at McRae, only five months ago, we find Governor Smith using this identical language:

"There are men now running for the legislature, when the first session of the legislature under existing laws at which they expected to serve, will not meet until the summer of 1909.

"I AM OPPOSED TO ELECTING LEGISLATORS FOR THE SESSION OF 1909 UNTIL THE SESSION OF 1908 IS OVER."

Those were his words in his speech of November, 17, 1907. Nothing said about April; nothing about May; nothing about June. He announced a principle—a sound principle—that candidates for the legislature ought not to be elected in a primary called before the session of 1908 is over.

In other words, the people should not be asked to choose the men for the legislature of 1909 until the legislature of 1908 is over. The reason is obvious; the people should know how their members have conducted themselves during their first terms in office before being called upon to give them a second term.

To reelect members before their term of service has been completed is in practical effect, to give them a four-year term instead of a two-year term. And, of course, this kind of system violates the constitution.

When members are elected on June 4, 1908, to serve in the legislature of 1909, the very thing which Governor Smith said he was opposed to will have been done.

Therefore, in favoring the early primary of June 4, it must be apparent to all that Governor Smith has gone back on what he said during the campaign of 1906, and in his speech of November, 1907.

The question is: Why has Governor Smith changed his position so materially on such a very important matter? Another question is: Why did he, at Waycross, forget that he had opposed the early primary on the principle that it was wrong to choose "legislators for the session of 1909" before "the session of 1908 is over"?

The governor, five months ago, said he was opposed to this. Now, he is not opposed to it.

He even forgets that he said he was opposed to it.

Alas!—the fickleness of human memory.

Won't Get a Chance.

(From the Fitzgerald Enterprise.)

Joe Brown is quoted as saying that he was in favor of a modification of the present prohibition law. Yet he claims in his platform that he is going to support the will of the people. Well everywhere that Governor Smith has yet spoken the prohibition plank in his platform has been wildly cheered; and, anyway, Brown won't get a chance to favor his "friends."

Small Counties Doomed.

(From The Dublin Times.)

The small country counties are doomed, as far as having much to do with selecting governors and other state-house officials. Fulton can outvote a dozen of some of the smaller counties. The large city counties like Fulton, Chatham, Bibb, Richmond and Muscogee can get together and dominate the politics of the state.

But it is said that the state committee did only what the governor wanted done, and if so, we suppose the rules of the committee will have to be accepted, as the governor seems to be very much in the saddle in Georgia nowadays.

The Gubernatorial Proposition.

(From The Bainbridge Searchlight.)

W do not favor breaking the time-honored custom of a second administration. We can see no extraordinary merit in Mr. Brown's claim to the office. We are unwilling to go with the pendulum that will swing, if at all, to the opposite extreme. We believe that Mr. Smith's policies ought to be altered so as to safeguard public interests. He ought to be firm, yet fair; and he ought to abandon his antagonistic and unrelenting warfare against railroads; at the same time preserving the rights and liberties of the people. He ought to realize, as thousands of his admiring followers have already done, that enough is enough, and that the best policy to pursue is one of more deliberate judgment and action reassuring in its tone and tendency.

If Mr. Smith could see his way clear to adopt these principles, we believe he would be reelected by an overwhelming majority, and certainly our vote would be cast in that direction.

Why a Campaign?

(From The Athens Banner.)

They asked, "Who is Joe Brown?" but now they are asking the people to join the Hoke Smith club. If Hoke had the office sewed up, we see no reason for organizing clubs and worrying the business men and the farmers with a campaign, simply because a few politicians desire to become prominent.

Supporting the Governor.

(From The Thomasville Press.)

This paper is supporting Hoke Smith in this campaign for the same reasons it supported him in his last campaign, with the additional reasons that we strongly believe that he has not had a fair chance yet to carry out the pledges of his platform on reforms that are so badly needed in our state.

Down in Coweta.

(From The Newnan News.)

In regard to the unrest and unsettled condition of business affairs, we heard a gentleman who is a candidate for county office and has pretty well canvassed Coweta, remark that he found the Brown sentiment strong in this section.

That Letter.

(From The Brunswick News.)

If Joe Brown was so loaded in that letter of last August, why in the world does he not work it out of his system now?

Diversity of Opinion.

(From The Nashville Herald.)

There seems to be considerable diversity of opinion as to Governor Hoke's popularity at this time. Occasionally we hear a voter say he will vote for Hoke because he is entitled to a second term. Quite often we hear men say they voted for Hoke once, but will never do so again. Then, there are thousands of voters who do not appear to be interested in the scrap as yet.

Joe Brown has opened headquarters in Atlanta and promises to wage a hard campaign. Governor Hoke has four appointments in south Georgia this week, and instead of treating "Little Joe" with "silent contempt," he will make it a very noisy kind of contempt.

As to Headquarters.

(From The Augusta Herald.)

Little Joe's headquarters in the Kimball will be only a sort of intelligence office. His real headquarters are supposed to be in Louisville.

Polled a Mule Car.

(From The Winder Weekly News.)

When Hoke made his landslide for governor it was said the drummers went so far as to poll a mule car near Carrollton in their forecast of the election. This time, however, they have chucked their little ballot boxes overboard. The crow wasn't a sweet morsel to us when it was fresh, boys.

One Sort of Consolation.

(From The Waynesboro True Citizen.)

Joe Brown will have the consolation of being successful in at least one thing—that of being the unsuccessful candidate.

As to Prohibition.

(From The Cordele Sentinel.)

Hoke Smith says he favors the friends of the present prohibition bill amending it, but not the enemies. Mr. Brown would "take great pleasure" in signing a bill that would modify it.

When the Votes Are Counted.

(From The Thomasville Times-Enterprise.)

A pertinent query from a Hoke Smith supporter asking if the policy of the present administration was as strong among the people of the state this year as it was two years ago, will be well answered when the votes are counted on June 4. The people are surely but slowly beginning to realize that enough is enough, and they have plenty to back their convictions on that point.

No One to Fire Him.

(From The Waynesboro True Citizen.)

If Joe Brown is elected governor, is there any one to fire him for incompetency? He has held four positions in his lifetime, and been fired from all of them for his inefficiency.

Explanation Wanted.

(From The Quitman Advertiser.)

Governor Smith will address the people of Grady and Thomas counties in Cairo on April 15. As he is to be in the neighborhood we think he might drop in and explain a few things relative to his administration which are somewhat puzzling to the voters who supported him during his last campaign.

Without Regard.

(From The Albany Herald.)

Joe Brown's platform appears to be broad enough and flexible enough to accommodate all who are opposed to Hoke Smith, without regard for predilections or past political affiliations.

Take Care.

(From The Fort Gaines Sentinel.)

Take care: "Little Joe" may be changed to "Governor Joe," and some folks, who now "dream dreams and see visions" will awake to a reality that will be really painful.

What's the Use?

(From The Macon County Citizen.)

If "Little Joe" is such a joke, what's the use of reorganizing the Fulton County Hoke Smith Club?

Cause of Card Writing.

(From The Tattnall Times.)

Joe Brown has been fired from every position he has ever held, and this is the cause of so much card writing.

Worse Than Ever.

(From The Brunswick News.)

Little Joe Brown says he is going to mix right with the people before election day. That will make it worse than ever.

The Old Cry.

(From The Dublin Times.)

We are sorry the ardent supporters of Governor Smith have begun that old cry of "ring" and "gang" and "corporation marplots" and dozens of other foolish expressions. Give the other fellow credit for being as honest in his convictions as you think you are.

"No Chance."

(From hTe Effingham News.)

It looks to us as if Mr. Brown's candidacy might be the result of petty spite, as he must know he has no chance of election.

Brain Storm.

(From The Broxton Journal.)

Greater men than Hoke Smith have been defeated at the ballot box, and the men who are shouting that Smith is stronger today than when he ran before have well developed cases of "brain storm."

EVANS TO MAKE ADDRESS.

Will Deliver the Memorial Address at Barnesville.

Barnesville, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—General Clement A. Evans, of Atlanta, has accepted the invitation to deliver the address here on Memorial day, Friday, April 24, and his presence will draw a large crowd from this and adjoining counties. General Evans is greatly beloved by the old soldiers of this section, many of whom were in his command during the war.

The Daughters of the Confederacy of Barnesville will have an interesting program of exercises, and will also serve a splendid dinner to all the old veterans who may be present that day.

Harmon Not Candidate for Governor.

Cincinnati, O., April 8.—Judson Harmon, former attorney general of the United States, who has been frequently mentioned of late in connection with the democratic nomination for governor of Ohio, gave out a statement today in which he says he is not a candidate for the nomination.

Letters from the People

A Veteran in a Good Cause.

Editor Constitution: It has been my good fortune to know for some years past the Rev. A. J. Hughes, of the North Georgia Conference, now residing at White Plains, Ga. I knew him as a pastor, as a wise interpreter and a courageous advocate of reform issues, but I knew him best, as perhaps everyone else did who knew him at all, as a pioneer and far-seeing prohibition preacher, speaker and distributor of temperance literature. For this cause he planned by night and executed by day, sometimes with many supporters, sometimes with next to none.

I knew him as a companion and "a trusted companion halves the journey and doubles the courage." Mine was the shortening of the journey and the increase of courage by my association with this man.

He says to me in a letter just received, "I have endured many sneers, snubs and criticisms," but, says he, "I feel amply compensated for all I did and suffered for prohibition in the friendships and fellowships it brought me." Why? Because "Love takes the sting from grief, faith gives eternity to love."

I saw some account in your issue of April 1 concerning the getting of a home for this "hero of a thousand battles." I immediately and joyfully responded, writing direct to Mr. Hughes at White Plains. His answer is a treasure which I shall hold during the rest of my life as altogether sacred. Before I had time to read this letter Rev. C. A. Jamison came into my office requesting my co-operation in securing for this brave and practically worn-out soldier, also for his invalid wife and family, a suitable home in which to spend the rest of their days. Indeed this man who fought for the right whenever it was possible, unflinchingly, though all the odds were against him, ought not only to have a comfortable home, but the prohibitionists of Georgia ought to give him also a modest but sufficient pension for life.

I understand that a treasurer has been appointed to receive funds for the purpose pointed out above, and the treasurer is Rev. H. W. Joiner, of East Point, Ga.

Suffer me to add another word. Men may not and do not agree on prohibition matters, but no man who has known A. J. Hughes for a quarter of a century (he was in this holy warfare farther back than that) can reach any other conclusion thn that he has perhaps done as a labor of love ten times as much for prohibition as any dozen men in Georgia. He told me fifteen years ago, not reach any other conclusion than that he has any other support for his family beyond the little salary he was receiving as pastor, that he would gladly spend the rest of his days in this cause so dear to his heart. But he went on with the small salary and, besides, did the other work. I call this man heroic.

Let us not forget the sower, the patient and unceasing toiler during many years, while we heap honors on the reapers of a day.

Let the real blessings of a great hearted people rest on our brother in his last days, and the peace of heaven forever.

75,000 EGGS FOR CHILDREN AT BIG EASTER EGG HUNT

Park Board Will Meet Saturday to Make Arrangements for the Hunt at Piedmont Park—Enough Money Nearly Raised.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR EASTER EGG HUNT.

Previously acknowledged	$188.00
Dr. George Brown	5.20
Dr. R. F. Ingram	1.00
Judge T. P. Westmoreland	1.00
George W. Case	1.00
Gavaghan & Manly	1.00
Judge R. T. Dorsey	1.00
Total	$198.20

The F. E. Block company has notified The Constitution that it will give 5,000 eggs for the children. This is a very liberal donation, and will be duly appreciated by the little ones when the big hunt takes place.

George E. Johnson gives 500 eggs, which will also help to make the festival a grand success.

Several persons who are getting subscriptions have not made reports, but will probably do so today.

Park Board Meets Saturday.

The park board will hold a called meeting Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock for the purpose of making all the arrangements for the Easter egg hunt, which has now been secured by the subscriptions of public-spirited citizens through The Constitution.

There has been raised up to date $193. About $40 more is needed, and this will be subscribed before the board meets Saturday.

Those who have not subscribed, and who wish to help give the little children a happy day at Piedmont park, are requested to send their names to The Constitution, or to Dan Carey, secretary of the park board, mayor's office, at once.

Mayor Joyner, who is taking a keen interest in the Easter egg hunt, has suggested that the park board appoint a committee of 100 citizens to assist in keeping the smaller children separated from the larger ones at the hunt. This suggestion will doubtless be carried out, and the committee of 100 appointed next Saturday.

The park board will appoint a committee of arrangements, which will secure the eggs and the music and make out a complete program for the day.

75,000 Eggs to Be Hidden.

There will be 75,000 eggs hidden in the park. Two separate hunts will take place—one for the little tots and one for the larger children. The little ones will be admitted first into the park, and will have a hunt in the paddock within the race-track inclosure. Then the larger children will be admitted into the grounds to hunt for eggs all over the park, with the exception of the paddock, where the smaller children will remain until both hunts are over.

The grown folks will make up the audience, and will occupy seats in the grandstand, from whence they can witness both hunts.

Chairman Patterson, of the park board, feels very happy over the fact that the children will not after all be deprived of the big egg hunt this year. He greatly regretted that the board was not financially able to appropriate the money for the egg hunt. The hunt was not held at Grant park, because of the damage which it was feared the children would do to the flowers and shrubbery.

The full program of the hunt will be given in next Sunday's Constitution.

Those who wish to subscribe to the festival for the children of Atlanta will have an opportunity of doing so between now and next Sunday.

CHANGES ARE PLANNED IN GARNISHMENT LAWS

Plans were set on foot yesterday afternoon, by the Atlanta chamber of commerce directors to secure amendments to the present garnishment law of Georgia which, it is believed, will greatly benefit present conditions and may possibly make it so that the money recently driven out of Georgia can be brought back.

Following the adoption of the report made to this board by Attorney W. A. Wimbish, in which he reviewed the present law and suggested the changes necessary to bring the law up to date and improve it all around, a second resolution was adopted calling for the appointment of a committee of five business men from the chamber of commerce to confer with the legislative committee of this body and have the suggestions brought to the attention of the general assembly in June with a view to having the law remedied at that time.

President Candler, who presided at the meeting, will appoint the committee later.

Law Fully Discussed.

General discussion in regard to the merits and demerits of the present law were entered into quite freely by the members present.

"It has gotten so now," declared D. Woodward, of the Woodward Lumber company, "that many justice courts in the county have resolved themselves into nothing more nor less than collection agencies.

"They serve employers with garnishment papers continuously and have become so annoying to us that we have employed a lawyer to look after these 'appearances.'"

His remarks were met with approval, and President Candler said: "So indiscriminate has become this practice that we have had garnishment papers served upon us when the man sought was only known to be working there through hearsay evidence." A driver was the subject of garnishment once, and that was the first I knew he was in our employ."

E. C. Callaway, chairman of the legislative committee, suggested that 1,000 copies of Mr. Wimbish's report be published and distributed among the members of the association for perusal and suggestion.

Samuel Carter stated that all of the cities in the state should be asked, through their boards of trade, to cooperate with the chamber of commerce in having this law amended, and suggested that pamphlets be sent to each, showing the report and asking cooperation.

Georgia Bar May Act.

Attorney Wimbish stated that he had no doubt the Georgia Bar association, at its meeting next month, would appoint a special committee to take up and handle this subject, but that it would take a year to get action through that course, so approved the action taken.

A rising vote of thanks was extended Attorney Wimbish for his report. Mr. Wimbish is perhaps more prominently identified with the prosecution of the railroads on account of alleged lumber rebates, than any lawyer in the country, which goes to make his suggestions more pertinent and interesting.

Following this action, the directors heard the report of Robert L. Foreman, chairman of the civic improvement committee, in which it was stated that a national speaker on the subject of civic improvement had been invited to visit Atlanta in May and address the members of the chamber on this subject. The directors approved the step taken and asked that his committee continue along the line begun.

Chairman F. J. Paxon, of the committee on commerce, made his report in regard to the "home label" crusade. His committee was thanked and continued while the report was tabled, until the next meeting.

GOVERNOR SMITH OPENS CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS

Governor Smith has opened up temporary headquarters in the Piedmont hotel in rooms 125 and 126.

It is stated that permanent headquarters will be selected later and a corps of clerks installed.

During the day there were present eight young ladies who wre busily engaged in addressing envelopes and writing letters from typewritten lists which had been prepared from the recent campaign of Governor Smith.

Just who will be in charge of the headquarters has not been announced, but it is generally believed that J. B. Hoyle, private secretary to the governor during his law practice, during the recent campaign and at present at the capitol, will be in charge.

It is expected that several gentlemen from the Fulton County Hoke Smith Club will be identified with the campaign headquarters. Nothing was given out for publication in regard to the governor's plans, and it was stated that only literature was being sent out from these headquarters at this time.

Stamps May Be Perforated.

Washington, April 8.—Postmaster General Meyer issued an order today permitting the perforation of United States postage stamps for the purpose of identification only. It is aimed to protect the large users of stamps against theft. Certain restrictions as to size and method of perforation are contained in the order.

FULL AUTHORITY HELD BY CHIEF

Chairman Pearce of Firemasters Board Makes Statement.

SAME POLICY IS PURSUED

As When Joyner Was at Head of Fire Department, Work Being Left to Discretion of Cummings - Firemasters to Meet This Morning.

Whether the board of firemasters or the chief of the fire department shall have actual control and complete directions of the real daily work of the Atlanta fire fighters will in all probability be determined during a session of the board of firemasters at fire department headquarters this morning.

The board of firemasters is composed of Hon. W. R. Joyner, mayor of Atlanta, Wm. R. Cummings, chief of the Atlanta fire department, ex-officio members because of their positions, and Councilman Johnson of the first ward, Alderman Hancock of the seventh ward, Councilman Johnson of the sixth ward and Councilman Roberts of the eighth ward.

During a session of the board Tuesday last Chief Cumming informed the members that some question had arisen as to the extent of his authority, as to the fullness of his jurisdiction. The session was executive and just what took place has not been given out except so much of the records as the members of the board feel disposed to disclose.

But that the members of the fire board were not only willing but were anxious to sustain and to support the chief was made apparent by the adoption of a series of resolutions which have been given out for publication by Dr. B. E. Pearce, president of the fire board. These resolutions read:

Cummings in Authority.

Whereas the Atlanta fire department is recognized as an efficient fire fighting machine, second in point of efficiency and discipline to none of its size in the country, and

Whereas, the present high standard of efficiency and discipline has been attained during the previous administration because of the signal ability of our former chief and because he was enabled to exercise that ability in the selection of such men and the adoption of such measures as he deemed necessary, and

Whereas, the wisdom of the former boards has been fully apparent by the results attained, therefore be it

Resolved, That this board pursue the same policy that has been adopted by our predecessors and that we accord to our present chief the same latitude in handling the department that was accorded to our former chief and that the chief of this department be held personally and individually responsible for the conduct of the same.

The resolutions were adopted without opposition, the board being guided by a statement by Chief Cummings that recently members of the department had come to the conclusion that it was the board of firemasters and not the chief of the department who was directing the work and the members of the force.

Formation of the force to take charge of the new engine house on North avenue was brought up. In the past the chief of the department has been selecting the members of the company as the new stations were established. When the manning of the new station was brought up it was suggested that the chief should present to the board his selections for places on the force. An afternoon publication coming under the observation of Chairman Pearce called from him last night a statement touching the situation.

Pearce Makes Statement.

"Being a member of the board of firemasters," says Dr. Pearce, "and that, too, for more than a year and a half, I wish to say that the board has never assumed the authority as has been printed this afternoon to, in any way, take away from the chief in the slightest the management. I want to say emphatically that the chief has been in full authority to employ, to discharge and to promote members of the Atlanta fire department as he sees fit and that the board has never assumed to itself the right to interfere in any manner whatever. That work has been left wholly and entirely to his wisdom and to his discretion. So far as the discharge of the fireman mentioned in an afternoon publicaton concerned, it is only necessary for me to say that the fire board, without an opposing voice, sustained that action of the chief. It wasn't incumbent upon the chief to put him back because we requested it. The truth is the board would never have requested his reinstatement but for the fact that the chief said to the board that he was an excellent member of the fire forces of the city.

"The resolutions adopted during the meeting shows the absurdity of the idea that the board has the slightest idea of trying in any way to even take charge of the department, saying nothing of even robbing the chief, an excellent man in his place."

FOUNDER OF GIDEONS SPEAKS HERE SUNDAY

A. F. Todd, Elected President of Atlanta Camp of Christian Fraternity Men.

The Christian traveling men, known as "Gideons," met last Sunday afternoon at the Young Men's Christian Association and elected A. F. Todd president of Atlanta Camp, No. 1, vice L. C. Satterfield, who resigned because he was transferred to another state.

Another item of business was to arrange for a grand rally of traveling men next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock to hear John H. Nicholson, of Janesville, Wis., who is the founder of the Gideon organization, which now numbers over 6,000 members. Mr. Nicholson is quite an interesting speaker, and several churches in the city have invited him to talk to the traveling men, but it was decided to hold a rally meeting next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Wesley Memorial church on Auburn avenue and Ivy street.

The Gideons cordially invite all the T. P. A.'s, U. C. T.'s and City Salesmens' Association to join them in this meeting; also visiting traveling men and the public generally.

IDENTIFIED BOYS TO GET WHISKY

This Is Charge Against Alleged Liquor Agent.

DIDN'T KNOW HIM, SAY BOYS

Express Agent Shaefer and T. E. Maffett Bound Over by Judge Broyles as Result of Boys Getting Rum From Express Office.

H. W. Shaefer, an agent of the Southern Express Company, and T. E. Maffett, alleged to be a representative of a Chattanooga liquor house, who were arrested Tuesday night by Officers Shaw and Covington, it being charged that Schaefer had delivered whisky to minors, and that Maffett had identified them, were yesterday afternoon bound over to the higher courts, Schaefer waiving right of trial. Both men were placed under $500 bond.

It is alleged that Fred White and Theodore Harper, two boys under age, had ordered the whisky, and that upon their identification by Maffett the whisky was delivered to the boys. In the course of the trial it was testified that Maffett had on former occasions identified men who had consigned to them packages held by the express company. The boys swore that they had not known Maffett before, but had had him recommended to them as one who would identify them, a thing which he without hesitancy did.

Judge Broyles declared that it seemed that he was one of the persons who it is alleged identify those ordering whisky from out-of-town houses, enabling not only unknown persons to receive booze directed to them, but also making it possible for assumed names to be used in making orders. In order, if possible, to bring out more evidence to substantiate this belief, Maffett was bound over.

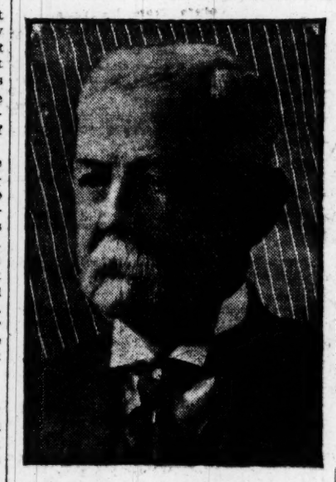

In regard to the position of the express company, H. M. Smith, local superintendent of the company, declared that, while the company deplored the circumstances, it nevertheless attached no blame to their agent. Mr. Smith further stated that daily attempts were made by consignees to evade the law governing the delivery of whisky, and that even the utmost vigilance is sometimes eluded.

How Harsh Physic Wrecks the Bowels

Irritate the skin in any spot frequently and that spot will grow calloused.

That is Nature's means of protection.

So with the bowels. When you irritate the lining with salts or "pills," the lining grows hard.

That so retards the natural bowel action that you come to need physic constantly.

And you need a constantly larger dose because of the calloused bowels.

You have the "physic habit."

Cascarets bring the same results gently and naturally—without irritation.

They restore the natural bowel functions, so you don't need them long. And the dose never needs increasing.

Their effect is the same as the effect of laxative foods—or of exercise.

They act exactly the same as right living would do.

If the bowels are already calloused, you may need two tablets a day for a time.

But, after that, take one at a time—when you need it.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The box is marked like this:

Cascarets

The vest-pocket box is 10 cents. The month-treatment box 50 cents. 12,000,000 boxes sold annually. 815

THIRD DISTRICT SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT ON MAY 24

Americus, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The Third District Agricultural college, located in Americus, will have its commencement exercises May 24. Rev. I. P. Tison, of Millen, has been invited to preach the commencement sermon.

The college, which opened its doors January 6, will end a term of unexpected success. With a hundred pupils enrolled, the progress made has been most gratifying.

The indebtedness of the school has been paid in full, and it is well furnished in all of its departments. The prospect for the future is exceedingly bright, and the college will open at the fall term to a capacity attendance. Many new names are being enrolled.

The farmwork at the school evidences the thoroughness of instruction. The crops are in splendid condition.

It will be necessary to keep some of the male students at the college during vacation to carry forward the cultivation of the crops. When Superintendent Collum called for volunteers today to remain at the school and work the farm during vacation, thrice the number wanted responded quickly, evidencing their keen interest in the success of the institution.

OSCAR S. STRAUS COMES TO PAY ATLANTA VISIT

Hon. Oscar S. Straus, secretary of commerce and labor, will arrive in Atlanta this evening at 7:35 o'clock to spend the night and remain in the city until Friday at noon, when he will depart for Washington. The information was received by Secretary Walter G. Cooper, of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, in a long-distance phone message, yesterday, from J. Wille Pope, former president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and through a telegram to L. A. Ransom, president of the Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers' Association.

Both pieces of information were received by the directors of the chamber of commerce in session during the afternoon.

Mr. Pope phoned that the secretary had declined to make any public address while in the city, nor accept any elaborate entertainment, and cited his declination to accept such from the Cotton Seed Crushers of Georgia, extended through the Atlanta members of that organization last week. With this in mind, the directors of the association referred the matter to President Candler and Secretary Cooper, with th power to act in regard to arranging a program of entertainment in behalf of Secretary Straus and his party.

The secretary is accompanied by Mrs. Straus and his married daughter, Mrs. Hockstader.

During this morning President Candler will appoint a reception committee from the chamber of commerce to meet Mr. Straus and his party at the train and escort them to the hotel. At 8:30 o'clock an informal reception will be tendered the party in the Piedmont hotel. This will be all for the evening.

Friday morning, large touring cars will call at the hotel and take the party for a drive around the county, winding up at the Terminal station, where the party will board the train for Washington.

Secretary Cooper has already engaged apartments for the party, and they will be quartered at the Piedmont during their brief stay in Atlanta. Secretary Straus has been in Georgia nearly a week. He came first to Savannah, where he delivered an address Friday evening and again on Saturday. Monday he spent in Columbus, his former home, where he spoke at a banquet and a second time at an open-air meeting.

He comes to Atlanta direct from Talbotton, where he spent Wedensday at his boyhood home.

When the delegates from the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, including Former President Pope, Secretary Cooper, L. A. Ransom and others, went to Washington recently to attend the organization of the National Council of Commerce, the Atlanta party was entertained at the home of Secretary Straus, and it is the desire of the chamber of commerce to reciprocate this courtesy.

President H. S. Harper, of the Georgia Crushers' Association, with President L. A. Ransom, of the Interstate Association, will cooperate with those in charge of making the visit of this distinguished visitor to this city pleasant during his brief stay.

PIKE COURT IS IN SESSION.

Zebulon Is the Battle Ground for Candidates.

Barnesville, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—Pike superior court is in session at Zebulon this week, with Judge E. J. Reagan presiding and Solicitor O. H. B. Bloodworth looking after the interests of the state. The grand jury was organized with P. R. Coker as foreman. The treasurer's report showed a balance of about $15,000, with no outstanding obligations.

Zebulon is the battle ground of the candidates while the court is in session. The three candidates for solicitor general of the Flint circuit have been on hand and addressed the voters of the county on separate occasions. The candidates are Colonel J. W. Wise, of Fayetteville; Colonel E. M. Smith, of McDonough, and Colonel J. M. Strickland, of Griffin.

The race for representative from this county is an interesting one. There are two candidates so far, Colonel J. F. Redding, of Barnesville, and J. A. Gardner, of Milner.

For the various county offices there are a number of seekers, and notwithstanding the late primary, they have been actively at work for some time.

Receivers Report Cash on Hand.

Macon, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—Receivers of the Exchange bank made a monthly report to the superior court this morning that showed $106,000 in cash on hand.

LIVELY TALK IN MEETING

Charge Made That Conductors Are Holding Up Cash Fares.

There was some lively talk before the railroad commission yesterday when the application of the Seaboard Air Line railroad for permission to discontinue its "shoofly" train between Americus and Columbus was taken up for consideration.

President Charles D. Johnson, of the Columbus Post, T. P. A., appeared before the commission to enter protest in behalf of the traveling men against the discontinuance of this train. General Manager T. F. Whittlesey and Assistant General Passenger Agent C. F. Stewart were before the commission in behalf of the railroad company.

Mr. Johnson made the statement that the train would be a profitable one to the company if it received all the returns from it. But the truth of the matter was, he declared, that many of the traveling men who use the train, compromise with the conductor, making a small cash payment instead of buying tickets. He said he personally witnessed an instance where five traveling men had seen the conductor privately.

Asked by Mr. Whittlesey if he himself had ever paid a cash fare instead of buying a ticket, Mr. Johnson replied that he had. Both Mr. Whittlesey and Mr. Stewart contended, then, that Mr. Johnson had no right to be heard before the commission. Mr. Johnson angrily retorted that he had as much right before the commission as either of the railroad men. Chairman McLendon, at this point, stopped what was promised to develop into a still more sensational incident.

The commission decided to give both sides opportunity to make further showing, and set the case for hearing on April 23.

Other Matters Heard.

The railroad commission also took up the matter of a new rule, the object of which s to prevent express companies from collecting charges on prepaid packages. Representatives of the Southern Express Company submitted an amended rule which does not impose such heavy penalties on the company as that proposed by the commission. The commission stated it would take up and decide the matter later in executive session.

The petition of the Rome Brick Company to be relieved of a $3 charge called "car rental," put upon it by the Western and Atlantic Railroad Company, was heard, and will be decided later.

COMMITTEE TO JUDGE COTTON SEED ESSAYS

Commissioner Pound, Dr. Soule and Hon. Martin V. Calvin to Make Decision.

State School Commissioner Jere M. Pound, of Atlanta; Dr. A. M. Soule, president of the $100,000 Agriculture College, at Athens, and Hon. Martin V. Calvin, director at the United States experiment station, Experiment, Ga., haev been named as a committee of judges by President M. S. Harper, of the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association of Georgia to pass upon the compositions written upon the subject of "The Value and Uses of Cotton Seed Products" for this association, and have accepted the appointment.

Secretary Fielding Wallace, of Augusta, is today sending out notices to the county school commissioners to this effect.

The association offers four prizes in gold for the four best compositions on this subject, written by the school children of the state, the prizes being $50, $25, $15 and $10.

In February the contest was announced to the school children of the state. Each school was invited to participate. The teachers in each school selected the three best compositions submitted and turned them over to the county school commissioner, who selected the one best composition from all those submitted in the county.

All of the compositions are in the hands of the county school commissioners now, and on April 15 each county school commissioner will send his one best selection to Commissioner Pound. Commissioner Pound will then select what he considers the four best compositions; they will then be sent to Dr. Soule, who will review and make his choice of four, and then they will be sent to Hon. M. V. Calvin for him to make his selections.

The committee will meet afterwards and select the final four to be announced as the prize winners. The names of the four lucky school children will be announced on Monday, June 1, and the money sent to them on that day.

Funeral of Carl Whittaker.

Sunshine is gloriously good for the hair, but sunshine won't make hair grow—it takes a perfectly kept scalp to do that. Krom Soap cleanses, cures and invigorates the scalp, and keeps it in prime condition.

Thick, growing hair is then a natural consequence. Brushing and sunshine are of much assistance, and will add a splendid gloss.

IN THE COURTS

A restaurant company, to establish branch restaurants, hotels, lunch counters and soda fountains, applied for a charter in the superior court yesterday. The name of the firm is "The Falks Co."

The petitioners, H. H. Falks and A. J. Bacon, are at the head of a $10,000 company, and ask privilege to increase this capital stock at any time to $50,000. Aside from desiring to establish restaurants and hotels, they also will engage in the manufacture of soft drinks and other articles needful in their business.

Both young men are well known here and are already running a restaurant on Alabama and Forsyth streets. Their new business promises to become one of the most successful in the state. Their attorney is W. O. Wilson.

Mrs. C. G. Wilson, who was tried in the city court yesterday for hitting H. W. Finch, a collector, over the head with an umbrella in a trial in Justice Puckett's court, was cleared of the charge in about two minutes by the jury.

Some time ago Finch is said to have gone with a bailiff to Mrs. Wilson's residence to collect money due on a piano. Mrs. Wilson claimed the piano was given to her by her husband, and said she would pay the bill if there was anything due on it. The collector and the bailiff seem not to have taken her word, and carted the piano away.

At the trial in Puckett's court it is alleged Mrs. Wilson became angry at a statement Finch made on the stand and hit him on the head with an umbrella. She was afterwards bound over on the charge of assault and battery. This was the case heard in the city court.

To relieve him from the monotony of legal affairs, Justice Orr yesterday afternoon was called upon to marry two Atlanta residents. Two minutes later Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White walked out of his court.

The groom has been a resident of Atlanta for some time, while the bride is from Portland, Oregon. She has been living here six months, and was a Miss Annie Marie Brain.

J. W. Dunford and A. D. Taggart applied yesterday for a charter for the Dunford Roof and Bridge Paint Manufacturing company. They propose to engage in the manufacture of paint for metal, railings, etc. Their capital stock is $25,000, and privilege is asked to increase this amount at any time to $100,000. Attorney J. S. Jones represents them.

The grand jury meets this morning to take up cases for the next term of the superior court, which starts next week. A large list of bills, it is thought, will be found.

It is not known whether any thing of a sensational order will come up at this time. The Neal bank investigation, which has taken up several special sessions of the grand jury, has not yet been finished.

BABY FELL IN DEEP WELL; WAS RESCUED BY FATHER

Little Fairburn Baby Had Remarkable Escape From Drowning in 23-Foot Well.

Fairburn, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—Last afternoon, while little Sallie and Lillian Upchurch, aged 2 and 3 years, children of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Upchurch, who reside one and a half miles east of Fairburn, were at play about the cattle barn, somehow little Lillian toppled over into the well, which is about 23 feet deep, and has about seven feet of water. It so happened that no one was present except little Sallie, who is only a little past three years of age.

When Lillian fell into the well, Sallie ran quickly and told her mother, who called to the father in the field near by, and rushed to the well and had already entered the top of the well in an attempt to rescue her child when the father arrived. He promptly pulled the frantic wife and mother out and saw his child floating on the water. He did not hesitate a second, but began the dangerous and difficult descent to his little one's rescue. The well had no steps; so he put his shoulders against one side and his feet against the other side of the well and went safely down and saved his drowning child. He lifted it from the water and held it on his breast with one arm as he was braced across the well. Then he coolly gave orders for a rope to be lowered by one of the men in a field near by. This was soon done and the rope looped under the arms of little Lillian and she was lifted up and out to her mother's arms. The child was not injured and it is thought that she was in the water less than three minutes.

Insurance Examinations.

Montgomery, Ala., April 8.—(Special.)—State Insurance Commissioner Frank N. Julian, who has been in the hospital for ten days, will soon be out. The first thing he will do on resuming duties will be to open up the examination of the Great Western Life Insurance Company, at Kansas City, which examination will be made by Actuary S. H. Wolfe, of New York. Mr. Wolfe has just finished for the state examination of the State Mutual at Rome, Ga., and the policy values of the Protective Life, of Birmingham, of which Former Governor W. D. Jelks is president.

WATER REPORT ADOPTED AT MEETING YESTERDAY

On Reading Manager Woodward's Report, Board Recommends Improvements at Once.

At the meeting of the water board yesterday afternoon the report of Park Woodward, general manager of the waterworks, read before the chamber of commerce meeting recently, showing that Atlanta's water plant is on a paying basis and illustrating the needs of several improvements, was unanimously adopted, with no one raising objection.

The board decided to spread the report on the records and also referred it to the general council, recommending that that body authorize at once the improvements urged by Mr. Woodward.

The report in question showed that the waterworks is in a flourishing financial condition and well able to take care of itself.

Sleep

Sleep is nature's rebuilding period, when the energy used by the brain, muscles and organs is renewed. If you lose sleep, your system is robbed of the strength sleep should give. Continued loss of sleep multiplies this loss until you become a physical wreck. Dr. Miles' Nervine quiets the irritated nerves and brings refreshing, invigorating sleep. Nervine contains no opiates, and therefor leaves no bad after-effects.

"For over two years I suffered untold agonies; my friends thought I was going crazy. I could not sleep nor rest at all. I tried different doctors, but failed to find relief. My head would ache all the time; I was like one drunk; could not concentrate my mind, and was so restless and worried that sleep was out of the question. After taking one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine I felt wonderfully changed. I am now on my third bottle and am gaining all the time. I can lie down and sleep like a child, and am able to do my work."
MRS. MAY SCOTT, English, Ind.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and we authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you.

EIGHT MEN WERE TRIED.

Affray at Rome Found to Be Mixed-Up Affair.

Rome, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The affray Saturday night on lower Second avenue when two Rome young men were held up and brutally beaten has been probed, and found to be a very mixed affair. Smiley Henson was bound over to the higher court under a $200 bond on the charge of robbery. The trial of the eight men charged with being implicated was held yesterday. Carlson and Poole were exonerated from the charge of robbery and bound over for assault and battery. The four men arrested in Dalton, whose names are Beard, Whitfield, Asbury and McBurney, were also exonerated from the charge of assault, but were rearrested by a special officer of the Southern railway under the charge of hoboing. The men deny the charge.

Chinese Boycott on Japanese Goods

Hong Kong, April 8.—The Chinese merchants guild has decided to cable their agents at Japanese ports not to place any more orders for Japanese goods, and to ship goods already ordered in vessels to other Japanese. Dealers in Chinese piece goods are joining in the boycott against the Japanese, which arose as a result of the Tatsu Maru incident.

FIVE BULLETS FOR HIS MOTHER

Just Released From Reformatory Young Man Kills Mother.

New York, April 8.—Because his mother, Susan Carlin, had sent him to various reformatory institutions in which he was a prisoner for many years, Bernard Carlin shot and instantly killed her today at her home on Quincy street, Brooklyn. Young Carlin had just been released from the reformatory at Napanoch, where he served a sentence for stealing a horse and wagon. He was arrested after the shooting.

When Carlin was freed from the reformatory the superintendent gave him $10 for a new start in life. He arrived in Brooklyn yesterday, bought a revolver and went today to the apartment where his mother lived with his sister Mary. When his mother opened the door in answer to his knock he thrust the revolver in her face and fired five shots into her head. He then attempted to shoot his sister, but the revolver was empty.

Carlin fled, but was pursued and captured after a desperate struggle in which he severely injured one of his captors.

AMERICAN BOY LEADS WORLD.

He Is Mentally Two Years Ahead of European Boy.

London, April 8.—Sir William Henry Preece, former president of the institution of Civil Engineers, in a paper which he read before the Royal Society of Arts tonight on "Technical Education in America," said it would be difficult, if not impossible, to make a just comparison of the methods of technical education in England and America, conditions being totally different. The American boy, he said, possesses the energy and smartness of a new race; the European boy mentally is two years behind him. This would account for the differences in curricula and papers set for examinations.

HE SMUGGLED IN A GIRL.

Canadian Official Is Arrested by an American Officer.

Winnipeg, April 8.—Herbert Wright, a Canadian custom officer at Emerson, Manitobia, was arrested at Noyes, Minn., today, at the point of a revolver, by a United States immigration officer on a charge of having smuggled into the United States May French, who had been denied admission to the United States two weeks ago. Herbert Wright is a son of Mayor Wright of Emerson. He was taken to Crookston, Minn., for trial this afternoon. There is much bitter feeling between the officials of the two governments at Emerson and Noyes.

FROM BOSTON TO KEY WEST

Project of Great Inland Waterway Discussed With Roosevelt.

Washington, April 8.—The project of a great inland waterway from Boston to Key West, Fla., was again discussed with President Roosevelt today, members of the house from states interested being present. There were Representatives Moore of Pennsylvania, Smith of North Carolina, Goulden of New York, Wanger of Pennsylvania, Capron of Rhode Island, and Burton of Delaware. About a week ago a bill was introduced in the house, providing for a survey for a sixteen-foot inland waterway from Boston to Beaufort, N. C., by Representative Moore, of Pennsylvania, who recently returned from a trip through Florida and portions of Georgia. At Savannah he met Secretary Straus, Representative Small and others deeply interested in the project.

Mr. Moore informed Secretary Straus that from his investigation that he believed it to be feasible to connect up the various waterway arteries, so as to permit of vessels going from Boston to Key West. A sixteen-foot channel would not be necessary from Beaufort, N. C., to Key West. It is now proposed to amend the bill recently introduced, so as to provide for a survey of the entire Atlantic coast as far as Key West. The president repeated what he has so often declared—that he feels a deep concern in the improvement of all waterways in this country that will aid in furnishing additional transportation.

MAKING ARRANGEMENTS FOR ENTRY OF NEW ROAD

Officials of A. B. & A. Gather in Atlanta to Perfect Schedules.

A meeting of the officials of the Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic railroad is being held in this city with a view to making arrangements for the freight and passenger schedules of trains, which it is expected will be operated over the Atlanta division within the next thirty days. Those attending the meeting are General Superintendent C. B. Wilburn, of Brunswick; Traffic Manager J. R. Rowland, of Atlanta and New York; General Freight Agent J. J. Campion, of Atlanta; General Passenger Agent W. H. Leahy, of Atlanta; General Manager Alex Bonnyman, of Atlanta; Chief Clerk J. Mitt Wells (to President H. M. Atkinson), of Atlanta, and Vice President P. S. Arkwright, of Atlanta. President Atkinson is now in New York, but it is expected that he will return to Atlanta in the next few days and complete arrangements.

The exact date of entry has not been decided upon, the details of making arrangements for passenger terminals being responsible for the delay. There is considerable discussion as to what depot will be used in Atlanta, it being the current opinion that the company will enter the old, or Union passenger station, on account of the many advantages being offered in the way of through connections and competition with those roads now being operated through the territory covered by the A., B. & A.

General Passenger Agent Leahy reported to his fellow officials that he was just in from a trip over the Brunswick division of the system and found everything in first-class condition. He stated that he had visited the terminals at Brunswick and believed that they were among the very best in the south; also that he had inspected the new trains being made ready for the Atlanta division and that he had seen none better in the United States. The road bed had also undergone much improvement recently, said Mr. Leahy, and in a short time he believed that trains could be operated on a fast schedule with perfect comfort and absolute safety to passengers.

The passenger coaches are of steel construction, handsomely upholstered, the interior finish being of oak, equipped with electric lights and electric fans, while the exterior finish is of a rich Tuscan red. The engines are powerful, being of the combination passenger and freight type. All of the officials are enthusiastic over the outlook and believe that the road will make an excellent impression.

BITTER WORDS FOR HUSBAND

Lawyer Accuses McKee of Trying to Ruin Mrs. McKee.

Paris, April 8.—The hearing of the McKee divorce was continued in this city today. The suit is brought by Mrs. McKee, formerly Mrs. Hugh Tevis, against A. Hart McKee. The first hearing took place March 4, and Mrs. McKee, through counsel, described alleged indignities to which she had been subjected by her husband. Mr. McKee retaliated two weeks later by bringing scandalous countercharges against his wife through Maitre Labori.

Today Maitre Barboux, on behalf of Mrs. McKee, conducted the pleading in rebuttal. The Italian nobleman with whom it is alleged Mrs. McKee had improper relations at a chateau at Varennes was identified as the Marquis Guglini. M. Barboux denied Mr. McKee's allegation, and offered to produce testimony from physicians to show that the wife's physical condition at the time specified was such as to disprove the charges.

He declared that the real object of the defense was not to furnish information to the French court, but to besmirch Mrs. McKee's reputation in America, and secure the publication of certain letters she had written to her husband.

Advancing to a position close to the bar, and speaking in a voice inaudible to the people in the court, Maitre Barboux read to the judge, to demonstrate the animus of Mr. McKee, a translation of the secret code words used in the letters between the couple. In conclusion counsel for Mrs. McKee gave Mr. McKee a severe arraignment, saying that he would have only himself to blame if his friends turned their backs upon him when he returned to America.

"This man," Barboux declared, "has failed to comprehend that in insulting his wife he also insults the mother of his child."

Maitre Labori, for McKee, will reply tomorrow. The court will hand down its decision after April 19.

Springfield, Mo., April 8.—Judge James A. Frink, an attorney and past grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of this state, was shot through the temple and mortally wounded here at midnight last night. Macon, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—William E. Bullington, a conductor on the Macon street car lines, suffered the loss of a small bank at his home this week which contained $35 in cash he had saved up in earnings. Some one entered his room and got away with the cash, and no arrest has been made up to the present.

PREPS DEFEAT JACKET TEAM

Stone Mountain Pulled Off Big Surprise Yesterday.

Game Was Eleven-Round Affair, Preps Breaking It Up Without a Hit and One Out—Tech Plays Trinity Friday and Saturday.

Sandy Beaver brought his Stone Mountain collection of prep players to Atlanta yesterday afternoon, and the Tech team succumbed to them in an eleventh-round finish, score 1 to 0.

Judging from the manner in which it handled itself yesterday, this prep bunch is about the fastest that ever disported on a local diamond, and should be able to put up a game fight with any college team in all the width and breadth of the land, be it going so far as Vanderbilt. That is, if one Wilson is on the hurling hill. A pitcher with that handle, backed up by a clever support, was the direct cause of the downfall of the Yellow Jackets.

He fanned no less than fourteen of them, and went practically unhittable, only three safeties being extracted from his delivery by the local collegians in all eleven chapters of play.

Chip Robert worked the first three rounds for the Jackets, and escaped without a hit. Mayer succeeded him, and pitched excellent ball. Four hits came from his delivery, but they were all widely scattered, and none of them had to do with the one run the preps harvested in the eleventh. But, then, Mayer hit Sloan, and when Wilson, who followed him, bunted, Buchanan threw badly to second, Sloan taking third and Wilson second. Cay went out to the infield, but when Felker was up, Sloan made a dash for the plate with the end in view of stealing home. Unluckily, Buchanan allowed the ball to get away from him, and the winning run was there.

Wilson Pulled Out.

Tech made a near pass at the game in the seventh, when two of their three hits were bunched. McClure singled and Davenport sacrificed him. Pitts walked and Robert uncorked a scratch hit to second that was estopped in time to prevent any run-producing. With the bases loaded, Wilson waded in and fanned Hightower, and the opportunity was gone when Pease filed to right.

The Mountaineers made a desperate effort in the fifth when Kelley got on through a misplay; McMullen did likewise, and Cox singled. This hit was, like Robert's, a short one to the infield, and there was nothing doing. This Kelley proved a good base-runner, stealing second and third. He attempted to swipe everything in sight, with two down, making a pass at the plate, that blew up and saved the Jackets from being scored on.

The game was a practice affair—Tech is getting in shape for the games with Trinity Friday and Saturday—and, while the defeat did not amount to so much, it made the prep boys happy and gave Tech a distinct surprise.

ACTOR HAS GOOD CONTROL OF DIFFICULT SPIT BALL

Baseball, as every one knows, was in its zenith last summer, and strange to say, an actor didn't want to go to work. The aforesaid young man was Fiske O'Hara the famous Irish tenor, who will play his annual engagement at the Bijou next week in the romantic Irish comedy drama, "Dion O'Dare." Besides being a fairly clever actor, O'Hara is a corking good pitcher, and is the only one among the theatrical profession who has control of the spit ball. He has a standing offer from the manager of one of the large baseball clubs of the east and a contract waiting for him whenever he wishes to sign it. Mr. O'Hara pitches for an amateur club at Salem, Mass., his home town. They have won the championship of Massachusetts for three years.

FRANK DESIRES TO SELL CROSS

New Orleans Asks for Waivers on Star Third Baseman.

C. Frank, of New Orleans, who generally has a card hung up his sleeve, is full of surprises. He sprung his latest yesterday when Billy Smith was notified that waivers are asked for on Dave Cross, the big league third sacker, whom Frank secured last year and is said to have paid a juicy price to.

The natural supposition is that New Orleans wants to get rid of the great infielder, who so long was a noble performer in the big show, but, as it is Charles turning the trick, it is not known just exactly what he is driving at.

It has been understood that Cross was to be one of the main pivots in the Pelican big league aggregation that will attempt to sweep an entire works before its terrific onslaught.

Anyway, Billy Smith says he will waive on Cross with impunity.

SOUTH ATLANTIC LEAGUE.

Augusta 2, Macon 1.

Tie in Little Rock.

Little Rock, Ark., April 8.—(Special.)—Darkness found Milwaukee of the American association, and Little Rock without runs this afternoon after ten innings had been played. Each team made but three hits, the pitchers, besides being effective, having excellent support. Three golden opportunities were presented for Little Rock to score, but fast fielding by the Brewers kept them away from the plate. Heavy clouds and pattering rain stopped the game. Brenahan made his first appearance of the season and pitched cleverly. He worked nine full innings.

Vanderbilt 5, Milligan 2.

Nashville, Tenn., April 8.—(Special.)—With the assistance of a couple of free passes and four bingles in the second inning, Vanderbilt took such a commanding lead over Milligan today that the latter was unable to overcome. Morrison's pitching was the feature of the game, only allowing the visitors two hits. Score by innings:

Climbers Open Big.

Montgomery, Ala., April 8.—(Special.)—When Birmingham comes next Wednesday for the opening of the league season there will be great doings. A street car parade with a band of twenty-two pieces will be given and the merchants will give up the afternoon as a general holiday. Governor Comer will be asked to throw the first ball over the plate and Mayor Teague is to be urged to take a hand in the initial program. Local fans are touting the locals to eat the Baron bunch alive with great ease.

Brooklyn 1, Nashville 0.

Nashville, Tenn., April 8.—(Special.)—Brooklyn was very lucky to win today's game from Nashville, an excusable error allowing the only run to score. Johnny Duggan and Bill Bernhardt each pitched in fine form and were accorded fine support despite the fact that the field was wet.

Savannah Comes Home.

Savannah, April 8.—Savannah fans are prepared to give the local baseball team a welcome royal tomorrow upon the return of the squad from Jacksonville. The season opens here with Charleston playing Savannah. Savannah people are almost all converted to the belief that Manager Morris has a strong aggregation, and he promises to make a very popular manager. A record opening day crowd is expected to see the first local game of the season.

Locust Grove Cops Game.

Locust Grove, Ga., April 8.—(Special.) Locust Grove won the second of a series of three games from Bowman this afternoon by the unilateral score of 13 to 0. Chug Combs was on the firing line for the home boys, and twirled in great style. The two teams meet again tomorrow.

Marshall Loses at Chess.

Vienna, April 8.—The American chess player, Marshall, was beaten today in the international tourney by Schlechter, the leader. Johner drew with Suechting.

THE HUSKY BOY

Here is Bill Viebahn, the husky right-hander, who will probably be retained by Bill Smith. The big German boy was with the Columbia Sally League team last year, and he pitched good ball, although losing more than he won, due to the fact that he was playing with an inferior aggregation that was not able to back him up. He promises to do good work in the Southern this season.

CRACKERS HARD AT IT FROM MORN UNTIL NIGHT

The Crackers were hard at it all day yesterday, taking a warm practice in the forenoon and having a battle between the Yannigans and Regulars in the afternoon. Before this contest was pulled off Billy Smith took his regular infield into the club house, where he gave them a talk with drawn curtains. The nature of the meeting was not disclosed, but Bill must have whispered something valuable to his men, judging from the way they went at it in the game.

Captain Otto Jordan was out in uniform for the first time since he met with his accident on Saturday. Otto unlimbered himself but did not go at it any too hard, through fear of reinjury. The cut on his forehead is healing rapidly and save from the black eye caused by the blow, the captain does not look much the worse for his hurt.

Ed Hurlburt, the catcher bought from Memphis, will report today and begin work with his new teammates. Hurlburt has been working out with semi-pros in Memphis and is pretty fit. The big receiver is anxious to play with Atlanta and the indications are that he will put in one of his best seasons this year.

The Crackers will carry out the same program today and on Saturday the Regulars and Yannigans will tie up again. While the other exhibitions are free, the small fee of twenty-five cents will be charged for this game, the proceeds to go to the players.

The line-up for Saturday follows:

Fox, 1b	Ford, 1b.
Jordan, 2b	Wilkes, ss.
Castro, ss	Sandherr, 3b.
Dyer, 3b	Cummings, 2b.
Manning, lf	Coveney, c.
Winters, cf	Moran, lf.
Becker, rf	McKenzie, cf.
McMurray, c	Castleton, cf.
Schopp, p	Walsh, p.

AROUND THE CIRCUIT

Bill Bernhardt, of Nashville, is developing some C. Frank traits. It appears that his recent visit to Birmingham to hobnob with his old teamsters, the Cleveland Naps, was for the purpose of getting Outfielder Bay from Lajoie. The Nashville manager is making strenuous effort to have a real team for Nashville this season. Says The Banner of that city:

"Ever since Bernhard first attached his signature to a contract to manage Nashville the local fans have been looking for 'Nap' Lajoie to turn over to his old teammate the 'Deerfoot' outfielder Bay, and now that Bernhard is in camp with the big Frenchman in the 'slag pile' city there will probably be something definite given out today or tomorrow.

"'Big Bill' did not let anyone know of his purpose in going to Birmingham to meet his old club mates, but the general impression is that he will perfect the Bay deal and that this fast outfielder will be on hand to don a local uniform in the next few days. Batch will probably be cut loose from Brooklyn here, and if Lush comes to terms, as he very probably will, there will not be a better outfield in the league, and from this viewpoint it is hard to see where any club in the Southern League will have any the best of Bernhard's crowd."

Donovan, the Brooklyn leader, was charmed with the work of "Moose" Baxter in the three Brooklyn games.

"There's a great ball player," said Patsy as he watched the angular "Moose" doing sensational stunts. "He is ripe for the big leagues. If he plays ball this summer like he has played it in these games, I know right where I can place him, and I'll do it."

Ryan seconded the remarks of Donovan.

"Baxter is a natural ball player, if I ever saw one," said Ryan. "He is not only a fine fielder, but he is a natural hitter. I know two first basemen in the National League who can't play the game as well as the 'Moose' is doing it."

In the meanwhile the "Moose" is doing his best.

"This is going to be my best year," he says. "I don't propose to spend all my time in a minor league. Good first basemen are always in demand, and I am going to show this year what is in me."—Montgomery Advertiser.

By slow process of eliminations, Finn has sifted his team down to a basis that permits guessing as to the line-up, and at present it looks like this:

Catchers, Bob Wood and Claude Stark; pitchers, Hart, Eyler, Robertson, Connolly and Walters; first base, Connors; second base, Page; shortstop, East or Manion; third base, Hess; outfielders, Thiel, Speaker, Drake, Hill and D. Stark.

Manager Finn himself is silent regarding the ultimate selection of a team to represent Little Rock in the Southern League struggle. He is willing, however, to name the catchers and three of four pitchers, first baseman, third baseman and two outfielders, namely, Wood and C. Stark, Hart, Eyler, Walters, Connors, Hess, Speaker, Thiel and Drake.—Little Rock Gazette.

DOUGLASS STOCK BOUGHT BY FANS

Birmingham Gets Catcher Douglass From Little Rock.

Birmingham, Ala., April 8.—(Special.)—Bill Douglass will report Monday. His refusal to report because Little Rock wouldn't buy his stooy in the Little Rock Club was overcome with 300 fans of Birmingham chipped in their widow's mites. These fans will hold passes and hold five shares of Little Rock stock and when the time rolls round will vote to sell to Chattanooga.

BEELL THROWN BY AMERICAUS

Latter Now Claims the Light Heavy Weight Championship.

Baltimore, Md., April 8.—"Americus" (George Schoenlin) tonight defeated Fred Beell by winning the first two falls of a wrestling match that was to have been set two in three. The first fall was gained by "Americus" in 21 minutes, and the second in two minutes.

As a result of his victory, "Americus" now claims the light heavyweight championship. The first fall was won with a half-Nelson, and the second with a crotch and half-Nelson.

The Lyric, where the match was wrestled, was crowded, and when the referee, John C. Doyle, declared "Americus" the winner, there was a scene of wild enthusiasm, his admirers being with difficulty restrained from overwhelming him. They expected their favorite to win, but the rapidity with which he did so was a surprise even to the most sanguine.

After the match Beell said that while they were wrestling for the first fall he had been thrown on his head and the muscles of his neck strained.

Old Negro Burned to Death.

Tifton, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—Lang Fowler, a negro between eighty and one hundred years old, met a horrible death in Tifton last night about 1 o'clock. He was unable to work, and was allowed to sleep in one of the shanties at the turpentine quarter just east of the city.

About 1 o'clock the shanty was discovered to be in flames, and when several employees arrived on the scene it was nearly consumed. They finally dragged the corpse of the old negro, from which the arms and limbs had been burned, from the flames, but life had been extinct for some time.

HACKENSCHMIDT IN ILL HUMOR

"Russian Lion" Sore Over His Late Defeat by Gotch.

New York, April 8.—Sore over the result of his match here, George Hackenschmidt, "the Russian lion" and former world's champion wrestler, is on the ocean, bound for England. Hackenschmidt did not wish to discuss his recent match in Chicago with Frank Gotch, but before he sailed he said:

"I believe I have not had a square deal. The referee, when I met Frank Gotch in Chicago, did not seem to see the way in which Gotch was wrestling. I had no one behind me to look after my interests.

"You can see for yourself," said the lion, turning the left side of his face and eye, badly disfigured. "That scratching should not be allowed in a wrestling match. Gotch kept digging his thumb into my eyes, the side of my face and left ear. His finger nails were long, and did great damage. Some Americans at the ringside cried, 'Shame.'

"I could get no hold on Gotch, and don't know why. I believed everything would be fair.

"I underestimated Gotch. After I had thrown Rogers twice in fifteen minutes, and Gotch had thrown him only twice in an hour, I figured I was the better man."

SPEEDED AN ANCIENT AUTO.

Man Arrested for Racing First Machine Built in Country.

New York, April 8.—Arrested for speeding, and in the first automobile ever built in this country, was the experience yesterday of Elwood Haynes, who was testing the little runabout he constructed in 1893, preparatory to the carnival parade last evening.

The machine had been lent by the Smithsonian institution to show the evolution of the automobile, and Mr. Haynes, in great glee at discovering that it ran so well, took a shy at the speed law and was hauled to the police station. Explanations followed and the charge was nolprossed.

SUBWAY TO BE OPENED TO PUBLIC THIS WEEK.

According to City Engineer R. M. Clayton the Pryor street underpass, which has been under construction for so long, will be completed during next week and opened to the public.

The work of laying the wooden block pavement, which is to connect North Pryor and South Pryor street, is now under way, and those who are forced to drive across the railroad tracks at this point will be glad to learn that this jarring feature will be completely eliminated by the new paving.

The blocks have been laid on top of the underpass and will be laid in the street during this week. Work on this underpass, Atlanta's first and only "subway," was begun nearly a year ago but has been delayed by first one thing and then another. When completed it will allow pedestrians to proceed across, or rather under, this crossing while the various freight, passenger and switch engines are shuting backwards and forward.

LIGHT DOCKET AT ALBANY.

Dougherty Superior Court in Session at Albany.

Albany, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—Dougherty superior court has been in session since Monday, and for the first time in its history will clean up both the civil and criminal dockets within a single week. Judge Spence having notified the grand jury, attorneys and court officers that this would be done. It is not a big undertaking, as Dougherty superior court has become an unimportant tribunal, compared with what it formerly was. This is the result of enlargement by the legislature of the jurisdiction of the city court of Albany, now one of the busiest tribunals in this section. The superior court is now occupied almost exclusively with murder trials and divorce cases.

COTTON STEADY AT NET ADVANCE

Market Opened at Decline of Three to Seven Points,

Then Rallied on Covering and Buying for a Turn and Closed at Practically the Highest Point of the Day.

New York, April 8.—After making new low records of the opening today the cotton market rallied and closed steady at a net advance of 4@8 points. Sales were estimated at 225,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a decline of 3@7 points under a renewal of yesterday's selling movement, lower cables and a favorable early weather map. Offerings were quite heavy at the start, but seemed to exhaust the supply of long contracts in weak hands, as they became lighter after the first few minutes, with the market developing a better tone on covering and buying for a turn, which was encouraged by reports that English mills had negatived a proposal to close down during Easter week, claims of steadiness in interior markets, and predictions for lower temperatures in central and eastern sections of the belt, although many local traders did not consider that the predicted cold weather would have an adverse influence so early in the spring. The close was at practically the highest point of the day. There were rumors that a foreign compilation showed stocks in the hands of European spinners to be only slightly in excess of last year, with the excess consisting largely of low grade Indian cotton, but no definite figures were available. Advices from the southwest indicated increased acreage in west Texas, but private wires reported that spot cotton in the south was held as high as when futures were selling 30 points higher, and that offerings were limited. Southern markets officially reported were unchanged to ⅛c lower.

Receipts at the ports today 20,558 bales, against 13,628 last week and 12,772 last year. For the week 100,000 bales, against 13,112 last week, and 102,844 last year.

Cotton spot closed quiet; middling uplands 10.25; middling gulf 10.50; sales 50 bales. Futures opened and closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, April 8.—Cotton spots easy. Sales, 1,750 bales. Low ordinary, 6 1-16c nominal; ordinary, 6 7-8c; good ordinary, 8 5-16c; low middling, 9 7-16c; middling, 10 3-8c; good middling, 10 7-8c; middling fair, 11 3-8c; fair, 12c, nominal. Receipts, 8,413; stock, 174,097. Futures opened quiet and steady, 3 to 6 points below the close yesterday as the result of unfavorable cables and a good weather report. The continuance of favorable weather in the belt served as an incentive for continued short selling and there was a further recession in values following the call. Inquiries regarding various grades of spot cotton on account of New England mills, together with the British board of trade returns for March, served as bullish factors of a more or less substantial nature, and at the close, which was steady, the active months were 2 to 4 points above the close yesterday.

Dry Goods.

New York, April 8.—The dry goods market was generally quiet and unchanged for the day. An auction sale of 2,500 pieces of silk was well attended and the goods were disposed of at fair prices. Underwear and hosiery in the primary markets continue very quiet as jobbers are still restricting their orders. The mail reports of business from the large centers show a continuance of the buying only for immediate needs.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, April 8.—When, after the opening, it was found that the pressure of the past few days was not present, the market slowly advanced, reacting from time to time, but closing at about the best of the day. A little better feeling pervades the local market, as the trade feels that the decline of the past few days was due to what looks like the liquidation of the last large interests connected with the May pool.

Great astonishment was expressed at the extent of the holdings of this pool and that they should have been compelled to close their interests through the liquidation of one of the parties interested.

STOCKS CONTINUE VERY SLUGGISH

Sales Were More Than on Previous Day.

Late in Day Rumors That the Erie Plan Would Become Operative, Rallied Prices, but Changes Were Not Important.

New York, April 8.—Transactions at the stock exchange today were a few thousand shares more than yesterday, but the price movement was even more sluggish and undecided. The government report on the April 1st condition of winter wheat and rye was made the vehicle for an attempted revival of activity. The publication of the government figures quickly revealed, however, that no new interest was stirred in the market by this influence. Traders who had bought in anticipation of a good crop sold to take profits, and prices of stocks ran off, although the percentage of condition of wheat was fully as high as had been expected. The indifference of the stock market to this factor proved a disappointment to the trading element, and they fell back upon the Erie financial problem as the repressive influence on the market. There was no prospect of any definite information during the stock exchange session to show whether the plan was to become operative or not, but many varying rumors were used in the attempt to move prices. The confusion of mind over the Erie conditions was enhanced by the intimation that the period would be extended for the assent of maturing notes to the plan. This removed the likelihood that the project would be declared abandoned immediately on the expiration, at 3 o'clock today, of the period set by the bankers for receiving all of the outstanding notes in assent. On the other hand, the dicussion arose of the position the company would be in with the passing of the maturity of the notes without redemption. The notes sold off on the curb again to below 90. Reports of rains in Kansas offered newer conditions for the wheat crop than were reported by the agricultural department, and had more effect in sustaining prices. Foreign influences were in favor of higher prices, though in very moderate degree. Some distinct improvement in the investment tone was discernable, both in London and on the continent.

The announcement of the merger plan for Mexican railroads, and the determination of the Interborough Metropolitan to attempt a bond issue rather than to resort to short term notes gave an impression of some growth of

VOTE WAS CLOSE IN MANY RACES

Several Counties Hold Primaries for Legislators and County Officers.

Several counties held primaries yesterday for members of the legislature and for county officers. The results were as follows:

Primary in Johnson.

Wrightsville, Ga., April 8.—(Special.) Returns from several of the country precincts from today's primary election show that Hon. Wm. Faircloth, candidate for representative from Johnson county against Dr. W. J. Flanders, the present representative, will carry the county by a large majority.

It is estimated that when the official count, late tonight, is finished in the Wrightsville voting place, that Faircloth's majority will be at least two hundred votes.

In the race for several of the other offices the vote has been so close that it cannot be ascertained who has been elected until the count has been finished. Mr. L. Davis, the present sheriff, will no doubt be reelected by a good majority.

Consolidated Vote in Hancock.

Sparta, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The successful candidates in yesterday's democratic primary, as shown by the consolidated returns, are, senator, W. P. Burwell; representative, Robert H. Lewis; ordinary, H. H. Little, clerk of court, W. E. Wiley; sheriff, T. B. Hightower; county commissioners, J. W. Brantley, George S. Rives, W. T. Birdsong; tax collector, A. M. Hutchinson; tax receiver, W. A. Yarborough.

Results in Lumpkin.

Dahlonega, Ga., April 8.—(Special.)—The Lumpkin primary results are as follows: R. H. Baker, representative, 172 majority; J. F. Pruett, ordinary; D. L. Cook, clerk; J. F. Sargent, sheriff; G. H. McGuire, receiver; J. O. Rickets, collector; C. M. Moore, treasurer; F. D. Covinder, surveyor; W. P. Rider, coroner. Three small districts not returned.

Flany, of Cairo, Egypt, was third. Those who were granted licenses are as follows:

FLAW IS FOUND IN PROHI BILL

Supreme Court of Alabama May Pass on Measure Soon.

Montgomery, Ala., April 8.—(Special.) A flaw in the passage of the general prohibition law has been found that may render it invalid. The constitution requires that all bills must be signed by the speaker and president of the senate in the presence of the members of each house. This bill does not show affirmatively that the bill was signed by the president "in the presence of the senate." The supreme court will likely pass on the act in the next few days. It is reported that the court is having some trouble getting together on the question involved. There is also a report that a faulty title endangers the prohibition law.

HE OPPOSES ALDRICH BILL.

Measure Is Dangerous, According to Banker Parker.

Washington, April 8.—"I am here to express my disapproval of the Aldrich currency bill," declared E. Southard Parker, president of the Metropolitan Bank of this city, before the banking and currency committee of the house upon the beginning of its hearing on the currency bill today.

"I consider it undesirable and impracticable," added Mr. Parker. "The Aldrich bill suggests panics and emergencies, but it does not provide the needed relief and remedy. It is a menace to the business interests and especially to the trade and mercantile interests."

The demand on the banks made by that bill to purchase $500,000,000 of bonds and to increase their reserves $200,000,000, he said, would be dangerous to the country.

Mr. Parker approved an asset currency.

There was some disappointment on the part of the members over the failure of more people to appear to be heard. Victor Morawtz and Horace White, of New York, wish to make statements as does the Philadelphia board of trade through its representatives, but none of these were present today. In the absence of any definite engagements, the committee took a recess until Friday, but will be called together tomorrow if witness appear for a hearing.

TILLMAN RESTING WELL.

Condition of South Carolina Senator Is Encouraging.

Up to a late hour last night the condition of Senator Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, who came to Atlanta from Trenton Monday night, and who is now resting quietly at Robertson's sanitarium, on Capitol avenue, was reported as being very encouraging. The physician in charge, Dr. Blackman, was very hopeful over the senator's condition and thinks that he will be quickly restored to health under the treatment he is receiving.

Senator Tillman expresses the regret that he did not seek sooner a sojourn in Atlanta, and believes himself much improved since his short stay in the city. He will probably remain here several weeks yet, which will preclude the possibility of his return this year to Washington to engage actively in national politics.
